HOPE DEFERRED
ONE BILLION OUNCES
METEORS ARE COMING
ADVERTISING RULES

Congressman Black of New York expects congress to start modifying the Volstead act next month. Clarence Darrow says prohibition will be a thing of the past in 1933, perhaps sooner.

If hope deferred maketh the heart sick, Mr. Darrow and Congressman Black will have sick hearts. The house of representatives is dry 2 to 1.

President Hoover is warned by leaders in his own party that any wet move would be fatal to Republicanism. The Republican party is threatened by the Anti-Saloon league with punishment if "it slides."

"There is not much hope of wet action there."

A gentleman is here from China to borrow from the United States government one thousand million ounces of silver, worth about $350,000,000.

China uses silver as money, and would be much obliged if Uncle Sam would lend it billion ounces.

Fortunately we are not in war days when anybody could shovel out American billions to foreigners. Congress must pass on the proposed Chinese loan, and will probably ask "do you want the money to feed your starving tens of millions, or to give your 500,000 soldiers their back pay and keep up the fighting?"

A great swarm of meteors is headed toward the earth, and the head of the procession should be visible next Saturday. You get an idea of the swarm's size, reading that the tail of the procession, its units travelling much more rapidly than rifle bullets, is three years away.

It is the terrific speed of these meteors usually made of practically solid iron and often as big as a cottage, that saves us from them. Because of their speed the meteors melt and become dust from the heat when they strike anybody or anything, and rarely hurt anybody or anything. The majority settling on the ocean's bed as meteoric dust.

If their speed were diminished by 99 per cent or more, the swarm now approaching would probably kill half the people on earth.

The business world, including all publishers, will appreciate President Hoover's sound advice to advertisers.

Those with long experience in advertising know their evils correct themselves. Advertising not founded on truth and value, will not last. A good name with advertisers as with women, is the most valuable of all assets.

The General Motors factory and machinery are worth probably two hundred million dollars. The name of General Motors products are worth more than two thousand million dollars.

A good advertisement must do five things and do them all. If it fails in one, it fails in all. It must make people see it, read it, understand it, believe it, want it.

Sir Henri Deterding of Shell Oil, is a busy man. He runs gigantic oil enterprises in Java, China, Africa, Venezuela and all over the United States. Now Russia accuses him of plotting to overthrow her.

MAYOR TO ASK STORE CLOSING

Compulsory Ordinance To Follow Bombing In St. Clairsville

(By International News Service)

ST. CLAIRSTVILLE, Nov. 12.—This little town was still rife with excitement today over the demonstration of protest staged by a group of former soldiers yesterday when a grocery store failed to observe Armistice day by closing its doors.

The veterans raided the store, which was operated by Thornton Stewart, a local resident, and saturated it with fumes of tear gas bombs, putting to flight the manager, patrons and employees. Among the patrons who were made victims of the attack was James Patterson, president of the First National bank.

A protest against the attack was made to Mayor C. B. Bradford. The mayor had issued a proclamation for the closing of all business, however, and he declined to comment on the action of the former doughboys. He said, though, that he planned to ask city council to pass an ordinance before next year, making it mandatory for all places of business to close on Nov. 11.

Leaders of the demonstrators said their action resulted from the repeated failure of the grocery store to observe Memorial days. The tear bombs which were used by the former doughboys in their attack were seized from the county jail, according to Sheriff Ford Moore. He said he allowed them to enter the ammunition supply room thinking that they wanted material for their Armistice day celebration.

SPEAKERSHIP BATTLE LOOMS IN OHIO HOUSE

Charles A. Jones Expected To Announce His Candidacy

(By United Press)

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—A battle for speakership of the Ohio house of representatives was believed in prospect today as a result of intimations that Rep. Charles A. Jones of Jackson county will announce his candidacy in the near future.

Rep. Arthur Hamilton of Warren county, Republican floor leader of the present legislature, already is in the field for the post, although he has made no formal announcement. He has the support of interests that organized the house last year.

Will Be Third Termers

Jones and Hamilton both will be third termers. Hamilton was elected to be floor leader of the 1929-30 session largely because Governor Cooper threw the administration support to his candidacy. At that time efforts were made by factions opposed to Hamilton to induce Jones to enter the race, but the latter refused.

Throughout the 1929 session, Hamilton, as floor leader, worked with the administration forces.

Control of the important committee on public utilities is expected to be an issue in the fight for the speakership, in view of reports that Hamilton has the support of a number of legislative agents for utilities corporations.

Jones, who generally was rated as being one of the ablest members of the house during the last two sessions, has admitted he is considering seeking the speakership, but has thus far refused to commit himself definitely.

Caucus Is Scheduled
Caucus of the Republican members-elect of the house will be held sometime next month. Representative Fred J. Bing of Erie county, sixth term, will issue the call, as senior member of the house.

Contest for floor leader or president-protem of the senate probably will be between Senator L. L. Marshall of Cleveland and Earl R. Lewis of St. Clairsville, according to present indications. Marshall already has announced his candidacy and Lewis is understood to be "receptive". Lewis was Republican state campaign manager in the recent campaign.

Other possible candidates for the majority leadership in the upper chamber include Senator-Elect Frank E. Whittemore of Akron, and Senator Robert L. Robe of Tiffin. Whittemore was president-protem of the senate during the 1919-20 and 1920-21 sessions. He previously had served two terms in the house, being speaker-protem during the 1917-18 session. Robe will be serving his third term in the senate and previously had three terms in the house.

COOPER PLANS DRIVE AGAINST UNEMPLOYMENT

Governor Considers Special Session Of Legislature

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, Nov. 12.—Gov. Cooper stated today he is giving serious consideration to possibility of calling a special session of the state legislature to consider enactment of legislation to relieve unemployment.

He was conferring today with members of his official family on the proposition.

If a special session is called, the governor said it probably will be before Dec. 15 at the time the new members who take office in January meet to hold their caucuses for organizing the two branches.

The session, however, would be conducted by the old members as the newly elected members cannot qualify until the first Monday in January.

Just what form legislation for unemployment relief may take, has not been definitely determined by the governor, though he indicated that it will be emergency legislation that will enable political subdivisions to issue bonds and short term notes for public improvements. The possibility of making a direct appropriation by the state to aid sufferers may also be considered, it was indicated.

YULE SAVINGS FUND SEEN AS BUSINESS AID

Cash Distribution Will Be Made First Week In December

ESTIMATES MADE BY EXECUTIVES

Constructive Purposes To Claim Large Share Of Money

Approximately $83,500 will be distributed to members of Christmas savings clubs by three banks and a loan company in Salem, executives of the local financial institutions announced today.

This figure represents the combined estimates of executives of the First National, the Farmers National and the Citizens Savings banks and the Home Savings and Loan company. The final check-up will be made next week.

Checks will be placed in the mails for distribution to Salem residents the first week in December. Salem bank officials estimated that 72 per cent of the total amount to be received by residents of Salem and vicinity in the Christmas club accounts will be used for constructive purposes. Thirty-eight per cent, or $31,730, will probably be used in Christmas shopping the bankers stated.

About one out of every 10 persons in the United States hold a Christmas club account. Average amounts to be received by members will be about $52 while checks to be sent out in this city will range from $12.50 to the higher amounts the limit being $100.

The inception of the Christmas club idea, 20 years ago, anticipated the need of providing a practical method of systematic accumulation of funds for Christmas shopping needs. The Christmas clubs encourage weekly deposits among many who otherwise might not maintain bank savings accounts.

Gen. Brookfield, a World War veteran, had participated in Armistice day ceremonies here during the day.

He was driving toward his home attired in civilian clothes, when he consented to give a "lift" to three youths. Shortly after the trio entered the automobile, a gun was pressed against the general's side and he was ordered "Drive where I tell you."

Near the suburban town of Merion, Gen. Brookfield was told to stop the car. After taking his wallet, containing $45, the men ordered him from the car and then drove away.

THIS LITTLE TREE

In a few more weeks approximately 7,000,000 little evergreen trees will be on their way to market. Countless other millions of little evergreen trees will remain at home.

The spectacle of thousands of evergreen trees stacked in a pile ready to be purchased to live in the living room during the Christmas season never fails to arouse the comment that the Christmas-tree habit is ruining the American forests. There are certain facts, however, which give the lie to such statements.

While it is true that Christmas trees will be cut all the way from Washington to Maine in the next few weeks for shipment, they will be cut according to approved methods of forestry. The bulk of the trees will be the "trim" from young stands of timber, the weaker, smaller trees which would be removed anyway to make room for their more vigorous brothers. To people who pay for every piece of shrubbery and every tree placed in their yards, this seems wasteful; to the forestry expert it is part of the business. He regards the Christmas-tree habit as a fortunate thing, since it creates a market for what, otherwise, would be waste timber. Anyone who doubts this to be so will be convinced by the difficulty he encounters in trying to buy a perfect tree at Christmas time. Those which are not lopsided or otherwise malformed are the tops out of large trees that have been used for timber.

Two other sources of Christmas trees exist in addition to the one described. Many of the trees are from nurseries, which specialize in the Christmas tree trade, planting and cutting the evergreens as they attain a sufficient growth. Another source of trees is land upon which young trees have encroached. The land is cleared before Christmas and the trees thus obtained sold in the Christmas market.

Intelligent supervision by state and national forestry officials have made the Christmas-tree business a valuable by-product of scientific forestry. Christmas trees are the source of considerable income and of a seasonal pleasure that nothing else could adequately replace.

"ADVANCEMENT OF PEACE"

President Hoover again committed himself to support of the world court in an Armistice day address at the annual conference and good-will congress of the world alliance for international friendship. He said:

"In the development of methods of pacific settlement, a great hope lies in ever extending the body and principles of international law on which such settlements will be based. The world court is now a strongly established institution amongst 45 nations as a continuing body, performing and facilitating justifiable determinations which can only be accomplished sporadically under special treaties of arbitration. Its permanence is assured and from it there is steadily growing a body of precedent, decisions, and acceptance of law in the formulation of which we should have a part, not alone in our own interest but in advancement of peace."

Mr. Hoover has given no intimation as to whether he will submit the three protocols signed last December providing for American membership in the world court to the session of the senate. There is good reason to believe that he may keep them in his pocket until he can be assured of their ratification. The time of the short session of the senate always is consumed pretty largely by appropriation bills anyway.

President Coolidge was in a similar position two years ago when ratification of the Kellogg pact was pending, preceding the last short session. He was apprehensive lest the big navy senators might threaten to kill the pact unless the cruiser appropriation bill was passed. President Coolidge refused to be made the goat however, and submitted the bill with his annual message. The big navy men recognized subsequently that public opinion was on the president's side and the pact was ratified with only one dissenting vote.

Supporters of the court, remembering Mr. Coolidge's procedure with the Kellogg pact, are urging President Hoover to do likewise—to back the world court and allow its fate to be settled by the senate and public opinion. They believe that no senator can be oblivious to the strength of public opinion in favor of American adherence to the court. Mr. Hoover, they believe, need fear no longer that even the irreconcilables will dare stand out against it.

What Others Say

A Question of Judicial Propriety
The Chicago Bar association professes to be shocked at the outspoken attacks of Judge Lyle upon the gangsters and their defenders, and advises the voters that he is lacking in "judicial propriety" and should not be re-elected.

It is true that Judge Lyle, in his fight to break the domination of Chicago by gang rule, has taken the public into his confidence in a way that one does not usually associate with the dignity and reserve ordinarily expected from the bench. But there are some other things true of the situation in Chicago, as regards the courts, the bar and the gangsters.

One of these is that the gangsters who have been making a farce of police protection against crime in Chicago have long been getting, right from the judicial bench, what amounts to official protection in the commission of crime. Lawyers who are unworthy of the name know judges on the bench whom they do not hesitate to wake up between midnight and morning in order to get some well-known gang offender out of the hands of the police on a bail bond so small in amount as to be a mere joke.

And the bar association so quick to be shocked by the outspoken opposition of Judge Lyle to this state of affairs has shown but little evidence of being shocked by the conduct of these judges who thus show sympathy with the gangsters, or of any disposition to deal with those of their own number who resort to illegal and disgraceful methods in their defense of gang criminals under arrest or indictment.

Decent and law-abiding citizens in Chicago are not likely law-abiding citizens in Chicago are not likely to scratch the name of Judge Lyle because under such circumstances, he becomes too impatient of gang rule to observe all the niceties of traditional judicial propriety, as defined by the Chicago Bar association.—Columbus Dispatch.

"Honor Your Food"—Good Motto.

Last Summer we entertained at our home two sisters, old friends of ours. There were other guests, so the table was delightfully crowded.

You know what a lot of chaffing and laughing takes place when congenial friends meet at dinner. Everything is made the subject of jest and merriment.

One of the sisters I mentioned was positively the most deliberate eater I ever met. She was always the last of the group to finish a course and, since some of the young people were eager always to get away for other pleasures, you can imagine the teasing this good lady received.

All this did not ruffle our friend one particle. "I honor my food," she said. Invariably, when urged to hurry, the reply was: "No; I honor my food."

Do you know that statement impressed me greatly.

Think about it yourself. In many respects eating is the most important thing a human being does. Yet how carelessly, how neglectfully we attend to the most pressing duty in our daily lives!

If we would honor the food and honor the meal we would be better off by a great deal. We have been taught to ask God's blessing on the food. After giving thanks for it really we are inconsistent if we slight or bolt the meal. We should dignify the occasion, give respect to what we eat—in short, honor our food.

It isn't fair to the good housewife to rush through the dishes she has prepared in the hot kitchen. Many a mother must feel sad when a particularly choice combination is tossed into the stomach of the family.

Deliberation in eating is largely a matter of habit. Too often "gobbling" the food is the result of bad training. The children must be taught to eat as they should.

Let no one forget that digestion begins in the mouth. Much of what we eat is starch in its nature. To care for starch properly there should be mixed with it a quantity of saliva. To guarantee this mixture there must be thorough chewing.

Really it is a grave mistake to bolt the food. The practice leads to indigestion.

Unconsciously I used the correct words, "grave mistake." Carlyle you will recall, said "man digs his grave with his teeth." Bad eating habits have filled many graves.

We will do well to follow the example of my friend. When we learn to honor our food we shall have better health. With better health the chance of long life is increased.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—O. Henry called them "the unloved romanticists." They are a city's vast army of shabbily genteel dreamers of romance chained to high stools, dark shipping rooms and other inconspicuous posts. They fill hall-bedrooms, up many flights and down at the end of the hall.

They are devotees of love-lorn columns and two-penny thrills of the "Millionaire Love Nest" headlines in tabloids. Respectable, clean living, they have clutched at success, missed and make the best of a rather fusty fate. In theatres, they are the last of the gallery gods.

Almost every one of them can reel off the complete history of every screen idol. When a Hollywood star stumbles they are the defenders who hush avidly to defense in movie magazines and movie columns. They will stand in the wind and rain at cinema openings.

The distinctly vexatious manners of theatre box office men has mellowed. One no longer stifles an urge to reach in and tweak their beezers. They look you in the eye instead of making you wait while they tell the telephone girl about the party they were on last night. Ticket sellers long overlooked a big bet in expressing discourtesy. Few jobs offer such promising contacts with people worth while. George White is the politest box office man in town and doesn't have to be.

On lower Fourth avenue are bookstalls reminding of those sauntering haunts in the sunshine of Left Bank quays. Ponderously dilapidated tomes along with soiled slender volumes are racked and sold for prices ranging from 10 to 35 cents. Often one comes upon some autographed treasure as I did at dusk yesterday—a copy of "White Light Nights" by O. O. McIntyre inscribed to a faithful Ritz bell boy six years ago and now offered at 15 cents. Elderly gentlemen constantly prowl around the stalls, furtively sneaking a page here and there from the classics.

Sunday morning flower sellers, raming Delancey street, the East Side 5th avenue, also offer an old world touch. They sell lappel bouquets for a dime to young swains.

When the reigning "America's sweetheart" trips out of a platinum limousine they gasp with admiration and will remain on the curbs with eyes ever shining and fervid until she departs. Without such worshippers there would be no picture palaces, tabloids or ten-cent-a-dance halls.

The men are the type who leave boarding houses every morning and return every evening with the regularity of a clock tick. They are sticklers for over-shoes, umbrellas, vest pocket pencil clips and under-the-penny lunch rooms. Outwardly precise, inwardly they foment with stuff of glamorous dreams.

The ladies are quietly dressed and suffocatingly essay high in efficiency. It is difficult to imagine them constantly indulging in roseate dreams. Yet they form the bulk of the audiences that determine the five figured salaries of the Conrad Nagels.

It is axiomatic "the unloved romanticists" seldom marry. Nor do they whimper over their isolation. All they want is their dreams. For them the fair finger of romance is always beckoning through the gloom and pointing only to the illusive mirage. Or something.

Delancey street kosher cafes bristle with activity, too, Sunday evenings. The late Will Hoge used to take me there for Sunday dinner, forcing me to stand at a wall counter while he parked himself at a table—the table charge being five cents per person extra. How we gazed on gefilte fish! And what belly laughs!

A Delancey street delicacy not procurable uptown is a huge dill pickle soaked in brine and with that certain aroma of garlic only the Ghetto bestows. Sliced on white bread and washed down with the East Side tippie celery beer it becomes as tasty as a set of crisp chittlins on a frosty morning.

"You recently hunted for jelly," writes W. S. Louisville, "and by your own admission filled five shelves. What you lack is imagination."

Be patient. Any day I expect to blurt right out what a mess my bank account is.

The Stars Say

For Thursday Nov. 13

According to the lunar transit in operation on this day there may be many problems and complications with dangers to employment and a critical state of affairs where letters, publishers, writings, contracts and promotions are concerned, attended by many delays and anxieties. Yet the solar team toward Jupiter, this powerful celestial pair being in trine aspect may be moved to overcome all adversities and conflicts, especially since Jupiter also has the assistance of the moon to translate its friendliness.

Those whose birthday it is may expect a year in which there may be many adverse and conflicting situations to overcome, but they are assured of the powerful assistance of Sol trine Jupiter and Luna sextile Jupiter, a combination to be counted upon as "eleventh hour friends." It is a time for transcending difficulties.

A child born on this day may be capable and ambitious, but may have traits of irresponsibility, extravagance and self-indulgence to overcome in order to attain its ambitions and reach position in life.

It was all a little mistake when Bert Lown, who makes music for patrons in one of New York City's fashionable hotels, cracked a bottle of—suntan lotion over the head of a private detective, whom he mistook for a hold-up man. ## Britten Asks New Chairman In Attack On Senator Fess

Representative Britton Criticizes G. O. P. Chairman

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Two prominent Republican anti-prohibitionists were joined today in open opposition to the expressed dry views of their party's national campaign.

Senator Fess of Ohio, chairman of the Republican national committee was made the target of a vigorous attack by Representative Britton of Illinois, and former Senator James W. Wadsworth of New York.

Britten demanded the selection of another chairman, if he said, Senator Fess is so blind or so intolerant that he cannot analyze the desires of millions of voters in progressive northern states.

Discusses Party Split Wadsworth spoke of a split in the party and asked: "What kind of a split is better, a split caused by a straight-out manly declaration on the fundamental importance of repeal or a split caused by a half-hearted and transparently insincere adherence to prohibition?"

Leaving the Democratic south out of future Republican calculations, Britton said, the success of the party is dependent upon its success in "such wet Republican states as New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Ohio," together with "many smaller wet Republican states."

Fess' leadership, he added, had been "colorless and void of the slightest comprehension of political strategy." He termed it a "leadership which has brought defeat and urged an immediate meeting of the national committee for a discussion of the best interests of the party."

Says Law Is Failure "We want our party to be right," said Wadsworth, "on the only fundamental constitutional issue that has arisen since the days of the Civil war and we will fight to make it right, split or no split."

"The trouble with Senator Fess is that he cannot see what is going on in this country. Tears dim his sight. The plain fact is that the prohibition law is a ghastly failure, and no change in penalties or procedure will make it a success."

REFORMATORY BREAK FAILURE; SEXTET NABBED

Two Guards Are Suspended For 30 Days For Negligence

CLEVELAND, Nov. 12.—The round-up of six youths who escaped from the Mansfield state reformatory yesterday was completed by Cleveland Heights police today with the arrest of the last three prisoners sought.

The trio was picked up late last night when police saw them acting suspiciously near a store and admitted they were escaped convicts after several hours of questioning this morning, police said.

They gave their names as Clark Walton, 18, Columbus, automobile thief; Joseph Miner, 21, Cleveland, housebreaker; and John Savchik, 17, Youngstown, a delinquent.

Sergeant George Denk, who headed the squad which made the capture, said the youths were unarmed but told him "if we had had guns we would have shot it out with you."

The liberty of the other three prisoners who saved a bar from a dormitory window and slid down a rope ladder thrown over the wall was even shorter. Paul Mahitch, 20, Athens, serving time for highway robbery, was found at the home of his sweetheart in Akron last night a few hours after Charles Flannery, 17, Cincinnati, a delinquent, and Leslie Brown, 24, Cleveland robber were apprehended on a road near Mansfield.

T. C. Jenkins, superintendent of the reformatory, suspended guards A. H. Morris and G. A. Wheaton for 30 days. Asserting that had they exercised greater vigilance in inspecting the dormitory, the escape would have been prevented.

"I like pies better than most any food, but I used to suffer when I ate pastry," says M. J. Ciolek, well-known police officer, of 1037 Twenty-Third Ave., So., Minneapolis, Minn.

"I would have sick headaches; would belch, leaving a sour taste in my mouth; suffered a lot with gas on my stomach; had no appetite. I had indigestion like that for over two years. Soda didn't help and I tried many things before I heard about Pape's Diapepsin."

"It took me right out of my trouble. I have a mighty hearty appetite, eat pastry or anything I want and have no after-effects. I am never without Pape's Diapepsin and recommend it to everyone I know."

If you suffer from indigestion, often or just occasionally, get a package of these candy-like tablets from your druggist. Mrs. Syvilla Baker, 90, Dies In Lisbon
LISBON, Nov. 12.—Mrs. Syvilla W. Baker, 90, widow of the late John Baker, died at the home of her son, Charles Baker, East High street, at 2 a. m. Tuesday following an illness of heart disease.

She was a lifelong resident of Lisbon, having been born here on July 19, 1840, a daughter of Henry and Rebecca Springer. Surviving are three sons and one daughter, Charles Baker, at whose home she died, Albert Baker, David Baker and Mrs. Sadie Popple, all of Leetonia. Ten grandchildren and seven great grandchildren also survive.

The funeral will take place from the Baker home at 2 p. m. Thursday and will be private.

government and threatens to execute eight conspirators alleged to be associated with him.

There is strength in unity and Deterding has that strength. Our oil companies are many, our biggest, most powerful company, standard, is chopped up into small pieces to keep it from getting too big.

John D. Rockefeller, who created it, is past 90 and not active. The men that helped him build it, Archibald Rogers, are dead. To Mr. John D. Rockefeller Jr., money means as little as the salt water in the ocean means to a fisherman's boy. He is busy with science, philanthropy, home building, art restoration, and has no time for Standard Oil or money making.

Able men that in old days would have continued building Standard Oil's power, giving Deterding a desperate fight, are now confined to minor activities, busy inventing cunning names for Standard Oil products that compete with each other, bewilder the public and injure Standard Oil.

That company needs a lawyer to tell it how to protect itself and its stockholders from the Dutch-British competition which is pushing it.

PROSPEROUS VALLEY, N. Y.
Prosperous Valley lived up to its name last month for Mrs. George Libbit and her son, who each picked a quart of large, ripe raspberries and huckleberries. Violets were found blooming in a field by David S. Hubbard.

to the wall and says, condescendingly, "well, not to hurt your feelings, I shall send in less oil from Venezuela to the United States and use up cheap California oil instead."

Brooklyn, "city of churches" may change its name to "city of gangsters." Murdered men, sitting or sprawling in their automobiles are frequent features of Brooklyn scenery.

Yesterday Brooklyn's police were interested in a dying man whose tongue had been shot out of his head, and in the "shooting up" of an undertaking shop in which the rows of coffins and occasional corpses are supposed to be blinds for a bootleg racketeer business.

In many parts of Brooklyn it is not unusual when a man asks "where can I buy whisky?" to refer him to the nearest undertaking establishment.

Often the whisky makes a real undertaker necessary. Five men on Monday bought denatured alcohol and decided to make it safe by boiling it. Four of the five died.

Americans that have "done Europe" will learn with sadness that The House of Monroe & Co. has closed its doors. Several generations of Americans have made the bank their headquarters in Paris and thousands that knew no other French knew Sept Rue Scribe which was the old address or Quatre Rue Ventadour, the address just closed.

The ill fortune of the old American house in Paris is part of an alarming crumbling process in French banking institutions that has suddenly taken France by surprise.

The French, however, are resourceful, thrifty, entirely beyond our conception of thrift, and the French government will know how to stabilize its financial institutions.

CONSERVATISM NEW POLICY OF OIL INDUSTRY

Petroleum Producers Will Restrict Output To Meet Demand

(By United Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—With the entire world staggering under the weight of raw material surpluses, the petroleum industry has taken the lead in restricting output to meet demand, oil men from all parts of the nation were told Tuesday by E. B. Reeser, president of the American petroleum institute, at the organization's annual convention.

The outlook for the industry depends, he said, upon "the rapidity with which general conditions improve and the ability of producers, refiners and marketers to adapt operations to the changed conditions under which operations must be conducted."

"With knowledge of the law of supply and demand, no economic excuse can be found, no plausible reason manufactured, to justify continuous additions to petroleum stocks," he warned.

Reeser, who represented the Barnsdall corporation of Tulsa, Okla., reviewed legislation aimed at furthering petroleum conservation and said that "conservation has now become an accepted policy in the industry."

53 Inmates Of Prison Farm At London Granted Paroles

Ninety Cases Considered
By Board; 37 Are Continued

(By International News Service)
LONDON, Nov. 12.—Fifty-three inmates of the London State prison farm here were paroled today by the Ohio board of clemency. The list represents one of the largest number of paroles ever granted at the institution. Ninety cases were considered by the board.

The cases of 37 prisoners were continued until the next meeting of the board. Six of the paroled men will be released on New Year's day, the remainder being given their conditional freedom during December.

Nine men were returned to the prison farm for violation of their paroles and their releases were either revoked or terminated. Fourteen men were granted final releases from parole.

Cuyahoga county headed the list with six paroles granted.

The list included:
Mahoning county—Henry Martin, breaking into a dwelling, December 15; Ira Harrall, manslaughter, December 1, out of Ohio; Nick Halliday, auto stealing, December 15.

Summit county—John Genovese, manslaughter, sentenced committed, December 15, three-year parole; Miles Dunlap, obtaining property under false pretenses, December 1, paroled to maximum.

Wyandot county—Carl Pindexter, burglary and larceny, December 15.

The nine paroles revoked included:

Stark county—William Newell, one year.

Summit county—Henry Oliver, one year.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

"Where are the dollies of yesterday?"

With the advent of modernistic decoration a new theory has crept in, and the right kind of a table is supposed to be its own decoration, not requiring extraneous ornament. For the living room there are all kinds of beautiful blendings of wood two or three kinds, perhaps, being used on a single piece. The result is a table that is decorative, as well as useful.

Tile-topped tables are also enjoying a growing vogue. They used to be considered most appropriate for outdoor rooms, the porch, terrace or garden. Or for period rooms leaning to Spanish forms.

Now, however, one sees these tile-top tables in conjunction with modernistic, early American or beautiful non-descript rooms. And as occasional tables they are handsome, useful and rather unobtrusive, as they invariably are of low size. The tiles may be merely beautiful bits of color, large squares, small mosaics or old geometrical patterns.

Then there are specially painted designs, figures, scenes or conventionalized patterns. (For the household with one or more of the traditionally careless smokers, a number of these tile-top tables conveniently spaced may do much toward saving rugs and timber.

Even the kitchen now has its self-decorated table top. Instead of plain white or solid gay colors, some of the new table tops come with a special pattern permanently glazed on. What looks like honey red or blue gingham isn't a fabric at all—it's gingham painted and baked into the enamel. This provides a touch of pleasing color in the kitchen—and does something toward saving tablecloth laundering.

The Stamp of Good Food

A symbol that signifies quality and price

What's in a name? Nothing but the action and conduct that lie behind it and give it special significance. So the simple characters, "A&P," have come to have a place in the speech of most Americans as a symbol for high quality food at low prices.

There is a sound reason for this. Sticking to its policy for nearly three-quarters of a century, A&P has sold the best foods it could buy at prices made possible only by serving many customers with the kind of food they want.

Thus "A&P" has become a hall mark for sterling grades of food at a cost which used to be associated only with poorer grades. A&P customers depend on its trade mark as buyers of silver depend on the stamp, "Sterling," for solid metal.

Yankees' efficiency at the front
were outstanding, declared the speaker, and he went on to describe the thrill that came when the American doughboys, thrown into
such scenes of carnage as Belleau
Woods, proved their courage to French and British leaders and went on to jam back the threatening German invasion.

"Perhaps the saddest thing of all," said Prof. Ramette, "came
when those brave young men who had fought for two, three, four years in the thickest of the conflict, met death just at the eleventh
hour. And messages of sorrow,
not of joy and elation, were read
by their fathers and mothers as
the celebration of the war's end
went on."

Concluding the Mt. Union instructor lauded activities of statesmen on both sides of the Atlantic
toward the establishment of international friendliness and specifically pointed out that if these nations work together in the future
as they did in the past, there need
be no great fear of "the next war."

Rev. C. F. Bailey Speaker

Interpretation of present day
conditions as revealed through God's word, the Bible, were given by Rev. C. F. Bailey, pastor of the First Friends church, in the celebration last night by Allen Reynolds post No. 892, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and its auxiliary.

Rev. Bailey used for his theme,
"What of This Hour?" The speaker expressed the opinion that the present time is the "twilight hour"
of the age and he is looking for the return of Jesus Christ. He admonished his auditors to enlist in the army of Jesus Christ under the call
of "this 11th hour, before the night
cometh when no man can work."

L. A. First, Vernon Morningstar and J. A. Nicklason composed the entertainment committee, which arranged the program. Frost presided.

Mayer J. M. Davidson, in a short talk said that he was "proud to acknowledge the service rendered
by the war veterans to their country." He pointed out that their work was not completed when the war ended and that their present task was to help bring up the young people of the day to respect the flag and obey the laws.

Civil War Vets Guests

Three Civil War veterans, Charles
Bonsall, William Horne and Smith
Reed, were guests of the post. Bonsall gave a brief talk. He is an advocate of peace and expressed the opinion that the Sermon on the Mount, given by Jesus Christ, was the great moral code for the nations.

Roy Wittenberger and Fred Thomas of Youngstown, known as the "Corn Huskers of the Ohio Edison company," entertained with jokes, violin and guitar duets and songs.

Other numbers on the program
were "Instrumental trio, Nelson
Conrad, Donald Althouse, Keith
Frost; instrumental duet, Donald Althouse and Keith Frost; banjo solos, Roland Kleinknecht.
S. M. Reynolds, of Damascus, father of Allen Reynolds, for whom the post was named, was the honor guest.

Preceding the program the two organizations, their families and friends enjoyed a dinner given by the auxiliary.

THE DAY In Sports

OHIO NIMRODS READY
SEASONS OPEN SATURDAY

Thousands of Ohio nimrods are polishing up rifles, visiting supply stores, preparing to embark on hunting tours in forests throughout the state this Saturday to wage warfare against rabbits, opossum, foxes, muskrats and other game animals for which the season will open. Many licenses have already been issued by Normal L. Reich at Reich and Rugg's in Salem while hundreds are expected to inaugurate the season in Columbiana county on the opening day.

Open seasons starting Saturday and bag limits for various game follow:

Local Squad Swamps Opponents In Benefit Game At Reilly Field

Their goal-line endangered only once during the entire contest, Salem High easily defeated Sebring High school's grid team in a benefit game for the Red Cross chapter by a 26-0 score at Reilly athletic stadium Armistice Day afternoon.

More than three full teams were thrown into the contest by Coach Floyd Stone, only four regulars, Ed Beck, Lawrence Weigand, Gordon Keyes and Pern Sidingler being used. Harold Houts, versatile reserve back, played fullback and with Beck shared honors in carrying the Red and Black to the easy victory.

Beck and Houts each registered two touchdowns, the former carrying Sebring's goal-line for 12 points in the second period while Houts registered a touchdown in both the third and fourth quarters. Dan Alexander, colored second-string fullback, and Houts contributed the extra points on line plunges.

Sebring Muffs Chance

The first period brought out no dramatic efforts by either team. Sebring muffed an excellent chance to score after a punt, attempted by Beck, was blocked on Salem's 17-yard-line. It was the first of Beck's punts to have been blocked all season. On the first play from scrimmage a Sebring back fumbled. Hugh Bailey grabbing the ball before it hit the turf and galloped 12 yards to his own 30.

Beck's punt on the next play went out of bounds on the 45 and Sebring registered its initial first down. A pass was intercepted by Henry Reese on the Salem 15-yard stripe and Sebring's last chance to cross the goal-line was lost.

Beck, Sebring left end, contributed his team's first down in the second period, an 11-yd. run on an end-around play. From then on Salem held the upper hand, a 20-yd. pass by Beck to Sidingler who ran an additional 22 yards to Sebring's 28 placing the Stonemen in position to score. Reese made five yards and Beck added eight on a plunge through center. Alexander, who replaced Gene Yarwood at fullback, hit the Sebring line on two consecutive plays for gains of six and five yards and Houts added two more. Houts failed to gain on a center back and Beck carried the ball over. Houts smashed through for the point.

Beck Scores

Houts thrilled fans with a 25-yd. run after Sebring was forced to punt following the kick-off and Beck completed a pass to Reese for seven yards. Houts gained one yard in two attempts and Beck's off-tackle run of seven yards brought the pigskin to the 17. A pass, Beck to Houts gained nine yards and Beck eased his way off left guard on the next play for his second touchdown. Alexander bucked center for the point.

Starting the third period, Sebring fumbled on the kick-off. George Ballantine recovering for Salem on the visitors' 35. Reese gained two yards then four while Yarwood smashed through for eight. Beck made nine. Yarwood five more and Houts hit tackle for the score. The buck for the point failed.

Ellis furnished a thrill when he grabbed the kick-off and loped his way through most of the Salem team for a 40-yd. return but successive attempts to buck the Salem line were futile and Sebring punted. Beck punted right back and Keyes hopped on the resulting fumble to give the ball to Salem on the 15. Line plunges by Reese, Beck and Yarwood brought the ball to the three-yard mark and Houts registered his second touchdown easily. Again the point failed.

Stone Uses Reserves

Stone immediately began inserting numerous substitutions and used every player reporting in a uniform for the game. Coach Karson, former Northwestern grid star who is experiencing his first year as Sebring mentor, also started tossing in his reserves and used 24 players.

The showing of the Salem reserves furnished a surprise for fandom here. Beck was stopped without gains frequently by the Sebring line but he also sneaked away for consistent long runs and made several spectacular returns of punts. Ballantine, the Corso brothers, Jimmy and Billie, with Battin played well on the line.

Beck was Sebring's outstanding performer.

The game was a great warmup session for the Stonemen in preparation for the annual battle with Lisbon High, scheduled here Friday night. Stone plans to use almost the identical lineup as that which faced Sebring against the county seat representation.

All proceeds above expenses will be donated to the Salem chapter American Red Cross, which started its annual roll call campaign here Tuesday. Less than 1,000 paid admissions were received.

STRIBLING WINS OVER ART DEKUH

Georgian In Unimpressive Victory Over Opponent In New York Ring

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—With all due respect to Arthur Dekuh, failure of Young Stribling to flatten him today sent Stribling's heavyweight challenger's stock right down to rock bottom. He got the decision, but his victory was anything but spectacular affair.

His failure to stop Dekuh makes Jack Sharkey's offer to fight Stribling for the New York Christmas fund for nothing, looms up like Al Smith's new building.

Stribling will have to move in on Sharkey's debt or suffer further slumping in the popularity market. There is no bunk about Sharkey's offer. He is ready to sign the moment Stribling says the word.

After yesterday's poor showing he will have to do something big to prove to the public that he, and not Sharkey, is entitled to that shot at Schmeling's title.

Singer Favored

They've made Al Singer a 2 to 1 favorite over Tony Canzoneri in Friday night's bout for the world's lightweight title. Before they climb into the ring, Singer may go as high as 3 and 4 to 1. That's the way they back a young world's champion in these parts, though the short-enders often make the wise men on Broadway come to torrents of tears.

FANS THRILLED IN BOUTS HELD AT SALEM GYM

Amateurs Furnish Action In Eight Fights Here Tuesday Night

Slambang action ruled as amateur leather-pushers vied for fistic honors in a series of eight amon-pure battles at the Memorial building gymnasium here last night.

Practically every fight on the card was a thriller despite the fact that none ended in a knockout. Two of the battles went into a fourth round when judges were unable to decide in either boxer's favor at the end of the matches.

Results

Results of the bouts follow:

Paul Hoffman (Salem) shaded George Julian (Salem).

Young Dickey (Salem) won on a foul from Buck Ash (Salem).

Phil Zellers (Columbiana) outpointed Johnnie Vatulis (Salem).

Amos (Lisbon) and Andy (Lisbon) drew.

Bob Monierief (Damascus) outpointed Risty Krepps (Salem).

Bud Smalley (Damascus) defeated Bob Zellers (Salem).

Young Dorsey (Sebring) outpointed Louie Hussey (Columbiana).

Chet Delaughter (Washingtonville) won from Jackie Grubbs (Damascus).

The Delaughter-Grubbs mix was one of the outstanding bouts of the evening, the former winning the decision by taking the fourth round by a wide margin.

Hoffman Wins Again

Hoffman and Julian staged a thrilling argument for three rounds, Hoffman earning the decision by outlasting his opponent. Ash lost his fight when Referee Evans ruled he attempted to foul Dickey.

Krepps finished a bad second to Monierief being outclassed all the way. A clever defense was all that enabled him to finish the fight.

The Dorsey-Smalley fracas was the best fight of the evening, Dorsey holding the edge through most of the milling and then took a fourth round to clinch the decision.

SALEM RUNNERS IN STATE MEET

Cross Country Team Will Compete In Annual Race This Week

Salem High school's cross country team will compete in the annual state cross country run which will be held at Ohio State stadium in Columbus this week.

The Red and Black harriers, coached by R. B. Clark, director of physical education in Salem grade schools, are rated as possible victors in the competition, having swamped two opponents in a triangular meet in Cleveland earlier this fall.

Harold Walker and Wilfred Brantingham are the leading performers for Clark's team. Walker placed third in the state meeting last year while the Salem team finished in fifth place.

A total of 103 athletes from 23 high schools competed in the 1929 meet. About 125 runners from 25 schools are expected in this week's competition.

Well Balanced Card

The card appears unusually well balanced, with the principals ranging from feathers to light heavies.

It will be the first appearance to Rosenbloom in this section. He demanded a substantial guarantee to leave the lights of Broadway for a jaunt into the wilds of Ohio, having done practically all of his fighting in New York and vicinity, where he has a strong following among Jewish bugs.

The champion refused to defend his title against Perroni, insisting that the Canton Youngster come into the ring at least two pounds above the 175-pound limit for light-heavyweights. One other clause on which the champion was insistent was that no Canton man be chosen to referee the bout. That position probably will go to an Akron or Youngstown arbiter.

Advent Of Radio Factor In Improving Enjoyment In Home Life

Salem Tool Company Displays M'Millan Set; Shows Great Progress

The radio plays an important part in the home life of the average family today. It has been a big factor in making the home more enjoyable. The news of the world, the finest music, sporting events, church services and a variety of other forms of entertainment constantly are in store for the family that owns a radio—and it is available at a moment's notice by simply turning on a switch and tuning in the station desired.

Radio has been made an even greater pleasure for folks in Salem who own McMillan Radio. In the new models many improvements have been added to insure reception as clear of annoyance as possible. The new tuning arrangement is sharp and definite—the slightest turn of the knob has an instantaneous effect. The illuminated dial is calibrated in both kilocycles and meters for the prompt and easy location of distant stations. Heavy gauge steel is used for foundation and shielding and there is an appearance of battle-

CRANK CASE OIL FILLS NEEDS IN CAR OPERATION

Lubrication Of Running Parts Necessary For Good Automobiles

Motor oil as used in your car has two important functions. The first of these of course is the lubrication of the running parts of the engine, but the second is of almost equal importance, for oil is intended to seal the space between the piston and the cylinder walls, so that the full force of the firing of the gasoline can be exerted to move the piston. When oil does this perfectly, the engine has full power, but if the oil is too light, or diluted by gasoline to lower than its proper consistency the engine loses much of its power.

This is a condition that the laboratories are all the time at work to remedy, and it has resulted in the Sinclair principles of lubrication being formulated. Sinclair Opaline motor oil has a great following among motorists.

As a result of researches by the company it has evolved a lubrication chart that should be studied by every driver. This chart is not merely a suggestion of a certain grade of oil for each car, but a scientifically worked out recommendation of oil according to the time of service of the car and its mileage. It is realized that a motor that has been worn by 10,000 miles of service requires a stronger seal than one right from the factory, and so the chart is worked out on a mileage basis, showing the exact grade of Opaline oil required during the life of the car.

The Culler Sinclair service, 12 West State, is glad to show the chart to drivers and help them to apply its principles. This station handles Sinclair products, exclusively washers and greases and has accessories for sale. William F. Culler, proprietor, believes that in Opaline and mobile he has on sale the finest lubrication that can be purchased.

Old Chairs Appear New After Repairs

Once in awhile, in some out of the way corner, one comes across an old chair that in its day was the acme of fashion and synonym for elegance, but that in its last estate has been allowed to fall to pieces. Its lines may be good, its wood superior, but of course its upholstery is knocked to bits. One wonders a little about its history, why such a fine piece of furniture was not repaired before it was ruined, and passes on with a thought of how frequently the ornament of today is on the dump tomorrow.

But in chairs especially many of the old pieces have an air of their own, a charm that is unusual. These pieces would grace any home nowadays if the ravages of time were repaired. Up in the attic you may have a piece or two, too good to throw away, yet too shabby to show. The thing to do is to send such furniture to establishments like that of Bodendorfer's Furniture store at 121 East State street, where all their original beauty may be restored. Mr. Bodendorfer repairs and upholsters furniture. In the latter work especially he delights to make used stuff take its proper rank, and he will do a good job for you at any time. He also makes overstuffed furniture to order, while the store carries a good line of furniture carefully selected, from which you may select the new pieces you want.

WINCHESTER, Eng.—A bottle of whisky and a bottle of beer were among other gifts that reposed on a table in front of the pulpit of Hyde parish church here in celebration of the annual harvest feast.

LONDON—Twenty-eight doctors examined Daniel Evans, miner, and none agreed as to the injuries that permitted him to draw compensation.

Sets New Record from Baltimore to Capital

Pilot C. C. Tablaferro set a new flying record from Baltimore to Washington when he flew the 35 miles in 9 minutes. He used the Eastern Air Express shuttle plane, which, though it was loaded with mail, achieved a speed of 233.1 miles per hour.

Salem Contractor Traces Improvements In Houses

One may have, and frequently does have, a veneration for an old home. Every little corner has a memory that is worth treasuring, and the rooms and even the exterior of the house have become so familiar that the idea of change is apt to bring a little feeling of resentment.

One should not blind himself to the fact that there has been a great improvement in dwelling houses in the last few years, as there has been in most all fields of human activity, and that the old homes, no matter how stately and dear they may have become, are not so convenient as the newer ones.

That convenience often is a matter of steps for the women of the household, a matter of relieving them of the drudgery that must be associated with housework. Veneration for inanimate things should not be permitted to add to the burdens of the living. Houses are built for their comfort, not to be cherished to the discomfort of their inmates.

Remodeling Helps
It is often the case that a little remodeling would bring a great

Plumbing Declared By Dealer Here As Asset To Progress

Someone has said rather wittily that the difference between a civilized race and a barbarian people is only a matter of plumbing. Perhaps, however, there is more to the observation than mere wit. Plumbing has made possible the cities of the present. Those of the Orient that try to get along without modern plumbing are subject to terrible epidemics, unhealthy and far from comfortable. Our own big cities, on the contrary, tend toward greater cleanliness every year, and plumbing leads the procession in advancing their livability.

If plumbing did nothing more than provide for water and sewage, its contribution to the race would be incalculable. Plumbing has to do with health and hygiene, and the

TRAINING HELPS PREPARATION OF SALEM STUDENTS

Highly specialized as business is today its rewards still go to those who know the general principles of the game. There may have been when a young man or woman could in an office pick up enough of the details of the business in two or three years to be worth more money and in exceptional cases show such aptitude that promotion came swiftly. Now, however, it is almost altogether a matter of training.

Business needs well trained workers, is always on the lookout for them, and is willing to pay well for the man or woman who can do any particular job a little better than any one else. Openings in offices are rarely given to the untrained; they go to those who are able to discharge at least a part of the duties from their previous experience.

Preference is thus usually given to those who have taken a business course.

Business schools as a rule have little difficulty finding desirable positions for those whom they can recommend. In fact, most of them have a waiting list of desirable jobs ready for the people who can make a success of them. To be really successful, a business school must meet the expectations of those employers who call upon them by making their instruction as thorough and as practical as it can be made. Experience and close personal attention to the pupils will do this. The Salem Business College with a record of 36 years behind it, has the experience and devotes the personal attention to pupils required to give them the basis of success, and on this fact has built up a substantial standing as a real school.

Under the management of Franklin F. Wells, with a training faculty, this school has been training young men and women toward success for a long time, and today enjoys the fine reputation of a commercial institute that does all it promises.

WARM AIR PLANT AIDS HEALTH OF FAMILY AT HOME

Proper Humidity Proven Essential Factor, Aid To Comfort

It is claimed by authorities that modern warm air heating in addition to the greatest comfort, is by all means the most healthful. There are two very good reasons for this claim. In the proper installation of warm air plants, all the air in the house is in gentle circulation. This circulation of air is in itself a great purification. One may stand in the lee of a prevailing breeze on a hot summer day and suffer greatly from the heat, but if he steps into the breeze the discomfort is done. The air seems keener and more life giving, and the heat is far less annoying. So in the circulation of air in the house in the winter time, that very circulation purifies and reconditions the air.

Next, the air can automatically be kept in a proper condition of humidity. This can easily be arranged for in a warm air heating plant. Third, with automatic heat regulation the house can easily be kept at the exact temperature desired. It is neither too hot nor too cold, the air is balmy and pure, and comfort is assured.

Most of the difficulty experienced with warm air heating in times past has been due to inexperienced installation. Proper heating of a house is an engineering job, and not two of these installations is alike. Hence experience must supplement the engineering. The selection of the furnace required is important, but not all of the job.

The Munsell & Vincent firm of this city backs its engineering knowledge with seven years of heating experience. It is prepared to install heating plants in both old and new houses that will do the work to the satisfaction of the users. In this heating it uses the celebrated Success Heaters, which are claimed to avoid the disadvantages of most furnaces and to be most economical and efficient.

American Air Aide Under Arrest in Brazil

Captain Orton Hoover, veteran American aviator, was arrested at Sao Paulo, Brazil, and is being held a close prisoner by the local provisional military government. There have been no definite charges lodged against Hoover, who has been aviation instructor to the Sao Paulo State Militia for the past seven years. It is said he dropped bombs on revolutionary troops.

NEW CHEVROLET IS ANNOUNCED

1931 Model To Be Considerably Larger Than Our Rent Car—Changed In Appearance

CLEVELAND, Nov. 12 — Definite assurance that Chevrolet will introduce a new car for 1931 on Saturday was revealed here during the staging by Chevrolet factory officials of the first of 50 dealer meetings to be held in the next five weeks throughout the country.

Included in a carload of equipment brought in for the meeting was a new car substantially bigger than the current model, and extensively changed in appearance.

Although the meeting was closed to the public, it was learned that H. J. Klingler, vice president and general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Co., who attended the meeting here, told the 500 dealers and associated bankers in attendance at the city auditorium that the car would be publicly announced the coming Saturday, and that, despite its increased size and improved appearance, it would be priced considerably below current levels.

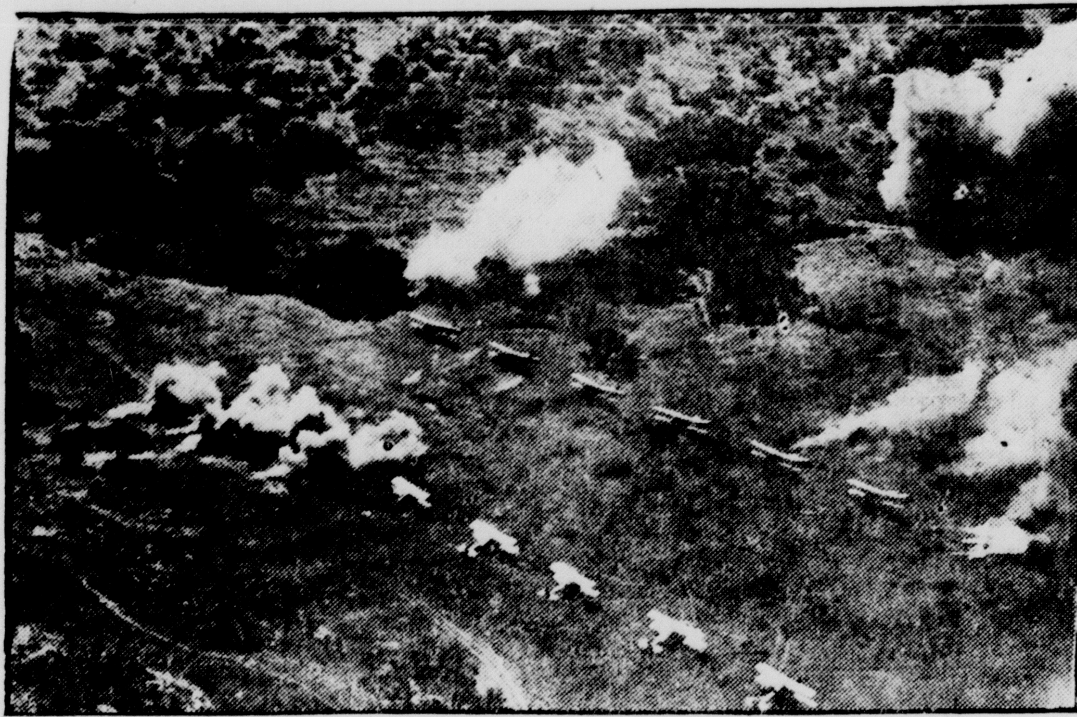

The car is longer than the present Chevrolet, and changes and refinements are so extensive that it has a decided "big car" appearance, one dealer reported.

Tradition Broken

The sweep of Democratic victories throughout the country has unseated a family that has been represented in Congress for the past twenty-five years. Above is shown Representative Katherine Langley, whose family had held the Tenth District, Kentucky, in the Republican column for nearly a quarter of a century.

ANCIENT WARRIORS DIE IGNOBLE DEATHS

After serving for many years in Uncle Sam's aerial army, these doomed planes of another age were made the targets of their successors' bullets and bombs. One of the obsolete planes used in the bombing maneuvers has already burst into flames, and three others lie within the center of impact from the bombardment.

MOVIES

"UP THE RIVER" At The Grand

With some fifty featured players, and nearly a thousand extras adding their comedy talents to a basically hilarious story, "Up The River," Fox Movietone Comedy, playing for the last time tonight at the Grand theatre, is rapidly proving itself to be a laugh sensation of the year.

Based on the illegal but uproarious activities of a team of burglars and jail-breakers whose chief purpose in life is to further a romance between two of their friends, "Up The River" is a gorgeous melange of rib-tickling dialog and incidentally establishing a number of stage favorites as well as many screen favorites as fun makers par excellence.

Spencer Tracy and Claire Luce, both Broadway celebrities, make their film debuts in this laugh-fest, with Warren Hymer and Humphrey Bogart, William Collier, Sr., and Joan "Cherie" Lawes in the other featured roles.

"DOUGHBOYS" At The State

War in all its funny angles—and the picture proves that there are thousands of them—is the theme of Buster Keaton's newest talking comedy, now playing at the State theatre. "Dough Boys" hasn't a dull moment in it with laughs and thrills, thrills and laughs, and a love story in between. Added laughs are guaranteed by the appearance of Cliff Edwards and his inevitable ukulele who sings the production's song hit, "Sing".

The romantic interest is furnished by Sally Eilers, last seen as the ingenue of "Let Us Be Gay." The cast also includes Edward Brophy, Victor Patel, Arnold Korff, Frank Mayo, Patsy Katz and William Steele.

Castoria...for CHILDREN'S ailments

ARE you prepared to render first aid and quick comfort the moment your youngster has an upset of any sort? Could you do the right thing—immediately—though the emergency came without warning—perhaps tonight? Castoria is a mother's standby at such times. There is nothing like it in emergencies, and nothing better for everyday use. For a sudden attack of colic, or for the gentle relief of constipation; to allay a feverish spell, or to soothe a fretful baby that can't sleep. This pure vegetable preparation is always ready to ease an ailing youngster. It is just as harmless as the recipe on the wrapper reads. If you see Chas. H. Fletcher's signature, it is genuine

Castoria. It is harmless to the smallest infant; doctors will tell you so.

You can tell from the formula on the wrapper how mild it is, and how good for little systems. But continue with Castoria until a child is grown.

HOPE DEFERRED
ONE BILLION OUNCES
METEORS ARE COMING
ADVERTISING RULES

—By Arthur Brisbane—(Copyright 1930 By King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Congressman Black of New York expects congress to start modifying the Volstead act next month.

Clarence Darrow says prohibition will be a thing of the past in 1933, perhaps sooner.

If hope deferred maketh the heart sick, Mr. Darrow and Congressman Black will have sick hearts. The house of representatives is dry 2 to 1.

President Hoover is warned by leaders in his own party that any wet move would be fatal to Republicanism. The Republican party is threatened by the Anti-Saloon league with punishment if "it wetsides."

"There is not much hope of wet action there."

A gentleman is here from China to borrow from the United States government one thousand million ounces of silver, worth about $350,000,000.

China uses silver as money, and would be much obliged if Uncle Sam would lend a billion ounces.

Fortunately we are not in war days, when anybody could shovel out American billions to foreigners. Congress must pass on the proposed Chinese loan, and will probably ask "do you want the money to feed your starving tens of millions, or to give your 500,000 soldiers their back pay and keep up the fighting?"

A great swarm of meteors is headed toward the earth, and the lead of the procession should be visible next Saturday. You get an idea of the swarm's size, reading that the tail of the procession, its units travelling much more rapidly than rifle bullets, is three years away.

It is the terrific speed of these meteors usually made of practically solid iron and often as big as a cottage, that saves us from them.

Because of their speed the meteors melt and become dust from friction when they strike our atmosphere, and rarely hurt anybody on earth. The majority settling on the ocean's bed as meteoric dust.

If their speed were diminished by 99 per cent or more, the swarm now approaching would probably kill half the people on earth.

The business world, including all publishers, will appreciate President Hoover's sound advice to advertisers.

Those with long experience in advertising know that its evils correct themselves. Advertising not founded on truth and value, will not last. A good name with advertisers as with women, is the most valuable of all assets.

The General Motors factory and machinery are worth probably two hundred million dollars. The name of General Motors' products are worth more than two thousand million dollars.

A good advertisement must do five things and do them all. If it fails in one it fails in all. It must make people see it, read it, understand it, believe it, want it.

Mr. Henri Deterding of Shell Oil, is a busy man. He runs gigantic oil enterprises in Java, China, Africa, Venezuela and all over the United States. Now Russia accuses him of plotting to overthrow her government.

Manufacturers Elevate Homer Taylor To Presidency

BANQUET CLOSES ANNUAL SESSION

Trade Conditions Are Reviewed By Retiring Executive

Election of Homer J. Taylor of East Liverpool as president and Frank H. Sebring of Salem as vice-president featured the closing business sessions of the 52nd annual convention of the United States Potters' association at the Hotel Hollenden in Cleveland.

Taylor, a director in the American China-ware corporation, succeeds Earl R. Crooks of Crooksville, while Sebring was elected to the vice-presidency to succeed James M. Smith of the Shenango Pottery company of New Castle, Pa.

McKee Attends Conference

Sebring was formerly third vice-president. He is president and general manager of the Salem China company and attended the convention with Floyd W. McKee, secretary-treasurer of the Salem concern.

Stewart Thompson of the C. C. Thompson Pottery company, and W. E. Wells Jr., of the Homer Laughlin China company, both of East Liverpool, were elected second and third vice-presidents, respectively.

Charles F. Goodwin, also of East Liverpool, was reappointed secretary-treasurer of the organization.

George C. Thompson of East Liverpool was toastmaster at the manufacturers' banquet last night. Charles L. Sebring, of Sebring, was chairman of the reception and entertainment committee. A program of music, vaudeville and a series of impromptu talks featured.

Trade Conditions

Reviews were reviewed by retiring President Crooks in his address Tuesday afternoon. He urged the principle of American valuation in the tariff law and expressed appreciation of the cooperation of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters in the appeal for tariff increases incorporated in the Smoot-Hawley bill.

MAYOR TO ASK STORE CLOSING

Compulsory Ordinance To Follow Bombing In St. Clairsville

(By International News Service)

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Nov. 12.—This little town was still rife with excitement today over the demonstration of protest staged by a group of former soldiers yesterday when a grocery store failed to observe Armistice day by closing its doors.

The veterans raided the store, which was operated by Thornton Stewart, a local resident, and saturated it with fumes of tear gas, putting to flight the manager, patrons and employees. Among the patrons who were made victims of the attack was James Patterson, president of the First National bank.

A protest against the attack was made to Mayor C. B. Bradfield. The mayor had issued a proclamation for the closing of all business however, and he declined to comment on the action of the former doughboys. He said, though, that he planned to ask city council to pass an ordinance before next year, making it mandatory for all places of business to close on Nov. 11.

Leaders of the demonstrators said their action resulted from the repeated failure of the grocery store to observe Memorial days.

The tear bombs which were used by the former doughboys in their attack were seized from the county jail, according to Sheriff Ford Moore. He said he allowed them to enter the ammunition supply room thinking that they wanted material for their Armistice day celebration.

SPEAKERSHIP BATTLE LOOMS IN OHIO HOUSE

Charles A. Jones Expected To Announce His Candidacy

(By United Press)

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—A battle for speakership of the Ohio house of representatives was believed in prospect today as a result of intimations that Rep. Charles A. Jones of Jackson county will announce his candidacy in the near future.

Rep. Arthur Hamilton of Warren county, Republican floor leader of the present legislature, already is in the field for the post, although he has made no formal announcement. He has the support of interests that organized the house last year.

Will Be Third Termers

Jones and Hamilton both will be third termers. Hamilton was elected to be floor leader of the 1929-30 session largely because Governor Cooper threw the administration support to his candidacy. At that time efforts were made by factions opposed to Hamilton to induce Jones to enter the race, but the latter refused.

Throughout the 1929 session, Hamilton, as floor leader, worked with the administration forces.

Control of the important committee on public utilities is expected to be an issue in the fight for the speakership, in view of reports that Hamilton has the support of a number of legislative agents for utilities corporations.

Jones, who generally was rated as being one of the ablest members of the house during the last two sessions, has admitted he is considering seeking the speakership, but has thus far refused to commit himself definitely.

Caucus Is Scheduled

Caucus of the Republican members-elect of the house will be held sometime next month. Representative Fred J. Bing of Erie county, sixth term, will issue the call, as senior member of the house.

Contest for floor leader or president pro-tem of the senate probably will be between Senator L. L. Marshall of Cleveland and Earl R. Lewis of St. Clairsville, according to present indications. Marshall already has announced his candidacy and Lewis is understood to be "receptive". Lewis was Republican state campaign manager in the recent campaign.

Other possible candidacies for the majority leadership in the upper chamber include Senator-Elect Frank E. Whittemore of Akron, and Senator Robert L. Robe of Tiffin.

Whittemore was president pro-tem of the senate during the 1919-20 and 1920-22 sessions. He previously had served two terms in the house, being speaker pro-tem during the 1917-18 session. Robe will be serving his third term in the senate and previously had three terms in the house.

BULLETS HALT BANK ROBBERY

Six officers, informed in advance of the robbery, lay in wait in two stores overlooking the bank and opened fire as the youths entered their automobile after the robbery.

The money was recovered. Camp told officers he and Jackson, while drunk, had been persuaded by another man to stage the robbery.

COOPER PLANS DRIVE AGAINST UNEMPLOYMENT

Governor Considers Special Session Of Legislature

COLUMBUS, Nov. 12.—Gov. Cooper stated today he is giving serious consideration to possibility of calling a special session of the state legislature to consider enactment of legislation to relieve unemployment.

He was conferring today with members of his official family on the proposition.

If a special session is called, the governor said it probably will be before Dec. 15 at the time the new members who take office in January meet to hold their caucuses for organizing the two branches.

The session, however, would be conducted by the old members as the newly elected members, cannot qualify until the first Monday in January.

Just what form legislation for unemployment relief may take, has not been definitely determined by the governor, though he indicated that it will be emergency legislation that will enable political subdivisions to issue bonds and short term notes for public improvements. The possibility of making a direct appropriation by the state to aid sufferers may also be considered, it was indicated.

YULE SAVINGS FUND SEEN AS BUSINESS AID

Cash Distribution Will Be Made First Week In December

ESTIMATES MADE BY EXECUTIVES

Constructive Purposes To Claim Large Share Of Money

Approximately $83,500 will be distributed to members of Christmas savings clubs by three banks and a loan company in Salem, executives of the local financial institutions announced today.

This figure represents the combined estimates of executives of the First National, the Farmers National and the Citizens Savings banks and the Home Savings and Loan company. The final check-up will be made next week.

Checks will be placed in the mails for distribution to Salem residents the first week in December.

Salem bank officials estimated that 72 per cent of the total amount to be received by residents of Salem and vicinity in the Christmas club accounts will be used for constructive purposes. Thirty-eight per cent, or $31,730, will probably be used in Christmas shopping, the bankers stated.

About one out of every 10 persons in the United States hold a Christmas club account. Average amounts to be received by members will be about $52 while checks to be sent out in this city will range from $12.50 to the higher amounts the limit being $1,000.

The inception of the Christmas club idea, 20 years ago, anticipated the need of providing a practical method of systematic accumulation of funds for Christmas shopping needs. The Christmas clubs encourage "small savings" among many who otherwise might not maintain bank savings accounts.

He was driving toward his home attired in civilian clothes, when he consented to give a "lift" to three youths. Shortly after the trio entered the automobile, a gun was pressed against the general's side and he was ordered "Drive where I tell you."

Near the suburban town of Merion, Gen. Brookfield was told to stop the car. After taking his wallet, containing $45, the men ordered him from the car and then drove away with a stolen automobile.

THIS LITTLE TREE

In a few more weeks approximately 7,000,000 little evergreen trees will be on their way to market. Countless other millions of little evergreen trees will remain at home. The spectacle of thousands of evergreen trees stacked in a pile ready to be purchased to live in the living room during the Christmas season never fails to arouse the comment that the Christmas-tree habit is ruining the American forests. There are certain facts, however, which give the lie to such statements.

While it is true that Christmas trees will be cut all the way from Washington to Maine in the next few weeks for shipment, they will be cut according to approved methods of forestry. The bulk of the trees will be the "trim" from young stands of timber, the weaker, smaller trees which would be removed anyway to make room for their more vigorous brothers. To people who pay for every piece of shrubbery and every tree placed in their yards, this seems wasteful; to the forestry expert it is part of the business. He regards the Christmas-tree habit as a fortunate thing, since it creates a market for what otherwise would be waste timber. Anyone who doubts this to be so will be convinced by the difficulty he encounters in trying to buy a perfect tree at Christmas time. Those which are not lopsided or otherwise malformed are the tops out of large trees that have been used for timber.

Two other sources of Christmas trees exist in addition to the one described. Many of the trees are from nurseries, which specialize in the Christmas tree trade, planting and cutting the evergreens as they attain a sufficient growth. Another source of trees is land upon which young trees have encroached. The land is cleared before Christmas and the trees thus obtained sold in the Christmas market.

Intelligent supervision by state and national forestry officials have made the Christmas-tree business a valuable by-product of scientific forestry. Christmas trees are the source of considerable income and of a seasonal pleasure that nothing else could adequately replace.

"ADVANCEMENT OF PEACE"

President Hoover again committed himself to support of the world court in an Armistice day address at the annual conference and good-will congress of the world alliance for international friendship. He said:

"In the development of methods of pacific settlement, a great hope lies in ever extending the body and principles of international law on which such settlements will be based. The world court is now a strongly established institution amongst 45 nations as a continuing body, performing and facilitating justifiable determinations which can only be accomplished sporadically under special treaties of arbitration. Its permanence is assured and from it there is steadily growing a body of precedent, decisions, and acceptance of law in the formation of which we should have a part, not alone in our own interest but in advancement of peace."

Mr. Hoover has given no intimation as to whether he will submit the three protocols signed last December providing for American membership in the world court to the session of the senate. There is good reason to believe that he may keep them in his pocket until he can be assured of their ratification. The time of the short session of the senate always is consumed pretty largely by appropriation bills anyway.

President Coolidge was in a similar position two years ago when ratification of the Kellogg pact was pending, preceding the last short session. He was apprehensive lest the big navy senators might threaten to kill the pact unless the cruiser appropriation bill was passed. President Coolidge refused to be made the goat however, and submitted the pact with his annual message. The big navy men recognized subsequently that public opinion was on the president's side and the pact was ratified with only one dissenting vote.

Supporters of the court, remembering Mr. Coolidge's procedure with the Kellogg pact, are urging President Hoover to do likewise—to back the world court and allow its fate to be settled by the senate and public opinion. They believe that no senator can be oblivious to the strength of public opinion in favor of American adherence to the court. Mr. Hoover, they believe, need fear no longer that even the irreconcilables will dare stand out against it.

What Others Say

A Question of Judicial Propriety
The Chicago Bar association professes to be shocked at the outspoken attacks of Judge Lyle upon the gangsters and their defenders, and advises the voters that he is lacking in "judicial propriety" and should not be re-elected.

It is true that Judge Lyle, in his fight to break the domination of Chicago by gang rule, has taken the public into his confidence in a way that one does not usually associate with the dignity and reserve ordinarily expected from the bench. But there are some other things true of the situation in Chicago, as regards the courts, the bar and the gangsters.

One of these is that the gangsters who have been making a farce of police protection against crime in Chicago have long been getting, right from the judicial bench, what amounts to official protection in the commission of crime. Lawyers who are unworthy of the name know judges on the bench whom they do not hesitate to wake up in order to get some well-known gang offender out of the hands of the police on a bail bond so small in amount as to be a mere joke.

And the Bar association so quick to be shocked by the outspoken opposition of Judge Lyle to this state of affairs has shown but little evidence of being shocked by the conduct of these judges who thus show sympathy with the gangsters, or of any disposition to deal with those of their own number who resort to illegal and disgraceful methods in their defense of gang criminals under arrest or indictment.

Decent and law-abiding citizens in Chicago are not likely law-abiding citizens in Chicago are not likely to scratch the name of Judge Lyle because under such circumstances, he becomes too impatient of gang rule to observe all the niceties of traditional judicial propriety, as defined by the Chicago Bar association.—Columbus Dispatch.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

"Honor Your Food"—Good Motto.
Last Summer we entertained at our home two sisters, old friends of ours. There were other guests, so the table was delightfully crowded.

You know what a lot of chaffing and laughing takes place when congenial friends meet at dinner. Every thing is made the subject of jest and merriment.

One of the sisters I mentioned was positively the most deliberate eater I ever met. She was always the last of the group to finish a course and, since some of the young people were eager always to get away for other pleasures, you can imagine the teasing.

All this did not ruffle our friend one particle. "I honor my food," she said. Invariably, when urged to hurry, the reply was: "No; I honor my food."

Do you know that statement impressed me greatly. Think about it yourself. In many respects eating is the most important thing a human being does. Yet how carelessly, how negligently we attend to the most pressing duty in our daily lives!

If we would honor the food and honor the meal we would be better off by a great deal. We have been taught to ask God's blessing on the food. After giving thanks for it really we are inconsistent if we slight or bolt the meal. We should dignify the occasion, give respect to what we eat—in short, honor our food.

It isn't fair to the good housewife to rush through the dishes she has prepared in the hot kitchen. Many a mother must feel sad when a particularly choice combination is tossed into the stomach of the family.

Deliberation in eating is largely a matter of habit. Too often "gobbling" the food is the result of bad training. The children must be taught to eat as they should.

Let no one forget that digestion begins in the mouth. Much of what we eat is starchy in its nature. To care for starch properly there should be mixed with it a quantity of saliva. To guarantee this mixture there must be thorough chewing.

Really it is a grave mistake to bolt the food. The practice leads to indigestion.

Unconsciously I used the correct words, "grave mistake." Carlyle you will recall, said "man digs his grave with his teeth." Bad eating habits have filled many graves.

We will do well to follow the example of my friend. When we learn to honor our food we shall have better health. With better health the chance of long life is increased.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—O. Henry called them "the unloved romantics." They are a city's vast army of shabby genteel dreamers of romance chained to high stools, dark shabby rooms and other inconspicuous posts. They fill hall bed-rooms up many flights and down at the end of the hall.

They are devotees of love-lorn columns and two-penny thrills of the "Millionaire Love Nest" headlines in tabloids. Respectable, clean living, they have clutched at success, missed and make the best of a rather fusty fate. In theatres, they are the last of the gallery gods.

Almost every one of them can reel off the complete history of every screen idol. When a Hollywood star stumbles they are the defenders who hush avidly to defense in movie magazines and movie columns. They will stand in the wind and rain at cinema openings.

The distinctly vexatious manners of theatre box office men has mellowed. One no longer stifles an urge to reach in and tweak their beezers. They look you in the eye instead of making you wait while they tell the telephone girl about the party they were on last night.

Ticket sellers long overlooked a big bet in expressing discourtesy. Few jobs offer such promising contacts with people worth while. George White is the politest box office man in town and doesn't have to be.

On lower Fourth avenue are bookstalls reminding of those sauntering haunts in the sunshine of Left Bank quays. Ponderously dilapidated tomes along with soiled slender volumes are racked and sold for prices ranging from 10 to 35 cents. Often one comes upon some autographed treasure as I did at dusk yesterday—a copy of "White Light Nights" by O. O. McIntyre inscribed to a faithful Ritz bell boy six years ago and now offered at 15 cents. Elderly gentlemen constantly prowl around the stalls, furtively sneaking a page here and there from the classics.

Sunday morning flower sellers craning Delancey street, the East Side 5th avenue, also offer an old world touch. They sell lappel bouquets for a dime to young swains

When the reigning "America's sweetheart" trips out of a platinum limousine they gasp with admiration and will remain on the curbs with eyes ever shining and fervid until she departs. Without such worshippers there would be no picture palaces, tabloids or ten-cent-a-dance halls.

The men are the type who leave boarding houses every morning and return every evening with the regularity of a clock tick. They are sticklers for ever-shoes, umbrellas, vest pocket pencil clips and ride-the-pony lunch rooms. Outwardly prosaic, inwardly they foment with stuff of glamorous dreams.

The ladies are quietly dressed and suffocatingly sedate and in offices and workroom essay high in efficiency. It is difficult to imagine them constantly indulging roseate dreams. Yet they form the bulk of the audiences that determine the five figured salaries of the Conrad Nagels.

It is axiomatic "the unloved romantics" seldom marry. Nor do they whimper over their isolation. All they want is their dreams. For them the fair finger of romance is always beckoning through the gloom and pointing only to the illusive mirage. Or something.

who go 'girling' on the Sabbath. Swains suggesting escaped comedians from the Burgomaster.

Delancey street kosher cafes bristle with activity, too, Sunday evenings. The late Will Hoag used to take me there for Sunday dinner, forcing me to stand at a wall counter while he parked himself at a table—the table charge being five cents per person extra. How we gazed on gefilte fish! And what belly laughs!

A Delancey street delicacy not procurable uptown is a huge dill pickle soaked in brine and with that certain aroma of garlic only the Ghetto bestows. Sliced on white bread and washed down with the East Side tippie celery beer it becomes as tasty as a set of crisp chittlins on a frosty morning.

"You recently hinted for 'Jelly,'" writes W. S. Louisville, "and by your own admission filled five shelves. What you lack is imagination."

Be patient. Any day I expect to blurt right out what a mess my bank account is.

The Stars Say

For Thursday Nov. 13

According to the lunar transit in operation on this day there may be many problems and complications, with dangers to employment and a critical state of affairs where letters, publications, writings, contracts and promotions are concerned, attended by many delays and anxieties. Yet the solar beam toward Jupiter, this powerful celestial pair being in trine aspect, may be moved to overcome all adversities and conflicts, especially since Jupiter also has the assistance of the moon to translate its friendliness.

Those whose birthday it is may expect a year in which there may be many adverse and conflicting situations to overcome, but they are assured of the powerful assistance of Sol trine Jupiter and Luna sextile Jupiter, a combination to be counted upon as "eleventh hour friends." It is a time for transcending difficulties.

A child born on this day may be capable and ambitious, but may have traits of irresponsibility, extravagance and self-indulgence to overcome in order to attain its ambitions and reach position in life.

HUBBY SOCKS HER DETECTIVE

It was all a little mistake when Bert Lown, who makes music for patrons in one of New York City's fashionable hotels, cracked a bottle of suntan lotion over the head of a private detective, whom he mistook for a hold-up man. But the detective was, it is stated, employed by Lown's wife Viola (above with her daughter Virginia), who seeks divorce from the orchestra leader.

Britten Asks New Chairman In Attack On Senator Fess

Representative Britton Criticizes G. O. P. Chairman

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Two prominent Republican anti-prohibitionists were joined today in open opposition to the expressed dry views of their party's national campaign.

Senator Fess of Ohio, chairman of the Republican national committee, was made the target of a vigorous attack by Representative Britton of Illinois, and former Senator James W. Wadsworth of New York.

Britten demanded the selection of another chairman, if, he said, Senator Fess is so blind or so intolerant that he cannot analyze the desires of millions of voters in progressive northern states.

Discusses Party Split Wadsworth spoke of a split in the party and asked: "What kind of a split is better, a split caused by a straight-out manly declaration on the fundamental importance of repeal or a split caused by a half-hearted and transparently insincere adherence to prohibition?"

Leaving the Democratic south out of future Republican calculations, Britten said the success of the party is dependent upon its success in "such wet Republican states as New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Ohio," together with "many smaller wet Republican states."

Fess' leadership, he added, had been "colorless and void of the slightest comprehension of political strategy." He termed it a "leadership which has brought defeat and urged an immediate meeting of the national committee for a discussion of the best interests of the party."

Says Law Is Failure "We want our party to be right," said Wadsworth, "on the only fundamental constitutional issue that has arisen since the days of the Civil war and we will fight to make it right, split or no split."

"The trouble with Senator Fess is that he cannot see what is going on in this country. Tears dim his sight. The plain fact is that the prohibition law is a ghastly failure, and no change in penalties or procedure will make it a success."

REFORMATORY BREAK FAILURE; SEXTET NABBED

Two Guards Are Suspended For 30 Days For Negligence

CLEVELAND, Nov. 12.—The round-up of six youths who escaped from the Mansfield state reformatory yesterday was completed by Cleveland Heights police today with the arrest of the last three prisoners sought.

The trio was picked up late last night when police saw them acting suspiciously near a store and admitted they were escaped convicts after several hours of questioning this morning, police said.

They gave their names as Clark Walton, 18, Columbus, automobile thief; Joseph Miner, 21, Cleveland, housebreaker; and John Savchik, 17, Youngstown, a delinquent.

Sergeant George Denk, who headed the squad which made the capture, said the youths were unarmed but told him "if we had had guns we would have shot it out with you."

The liberty of the other three prisoners who sawed a bar from a dormitory window and slid down a rope ladder thrown over the wall was even shorter. Paul Malitch, 20, Athens, serving time for highway robbery, was found at the home of his sweetheart in Akron last night a few hours after Charles Finney, 17, Cincinnati, a delinquent, and Leslie Brown, 24, Cleveland robber were apprehended on a road near Mansfield.

T. C. Jenkins, superintendent of the reformatory, suspended guards, A. H. Morris and G. A. Wheaton for 30 days. Asserting that had they exercised greater vigilance in inspecting the dormitory, the escape would have been prevented.

CHESTER, Eng.—Only when police stopped him did a doctor's patient know he had walked about for hours with a radium needle worth $5,000 in his nose.

LOVED PASTRIES BUT SUFFERED IF HE ATE THEM

"I like pies better than most any food, but I used to suffer when I ate pastry," says M. J. Gzik, well-known police officer of 4037 Twenty-Third Ave. So., Minneapolis, Minn.

"I would have sick headaches; would belch, leaving a sour taste in my mouth; suffered a lot with gas on my stomach; had no appetite. I had indigestion like that for over two years. Soda didn't help and I tried many things before I heard about Pape's Diapepsin."

"It took me right out of my trouble. I have a mighty hearty appetite, eat pastry or anything I want and have no after-effects. I am never without Pape's Diapepsin and recommend it to everyone I know."

If you suffer from indigestion, often or just occasionally, get a package of these candy-like tablets from your druggist. They stop heartburn, gas on stomach, belching, nausea, headaches or any other symptoms of indigestion soon as the trouble starts. They are harmless; form no habit; can be taken as often as needed.

If you wish to try them before buying, write "Pape's Diapepsin," Atleeing, W. Va., for a FREE sample box.

government and threatens to execute eight conspirators alleged to be associated with him.

There is strength in unity and Detering has that strength. Our oil companies are many, our biggest, most powerful company, standard, is chopped up into small pieces to keep it from getting too big.

John D. Rockefeller, who created it, is past 90, and not active. The men that helped him build it, Archibald, Rogers, are dead. To Mr. John D. Rockefeller Jr., money means as little as the salt water in the ocean means to a fisherman's boy. He is busy with science, philanthropy, home building art restoration and has no time for Standard Oil or money making.

Able men that in old days would have continued building Standard Oil's power, giving Detering a desperate fight, are now confined to minor activities, busy inventing cunning names for Standard Oil products that compete with each other, bewilder the public and injure Standard Oil.

That company needs a lawyer to tell it how to protect itself and its stockholders from the Dutch-British competition which is pushing it.

PROSPEROUS VALLEY, N. Y.—Prosperous Valley lived up to its name last month for Mrs. George Labolt and her son, who each picked a quart of large, ripe raspberries and huckleberries. Violets were found blooming in a field by David S. Hubbard.

to the wall and says, condescendingly, "well, not to hurt your feelings, I shall send in less oil from Venezuela to the United States and use up cheap California oil instead."

Brooklyn, "city of churches" may change its name to "city of gangsters." Murdered men, sitting or sprawling in their automobiles are frequent features of Brooklyn scenery.

Yesterday Brooklyn's police were interested in a dying man whose tongue had been shot out of his head, and in the "shooting up" of an undertaking shop in which the rows of coffins and occasional corpses are supposed to be blinds for a bootleg racketeer business.

In many parts of Brooklyn it is not unusual when a man asks "where can I buy whisky?" to refer him to the nearest undertaking establishment.

Often the whisky makes a real undertaker necessary. Five men on Monday bought denatured alcohol and decided to make it safe by boiling it. Four of the five died.

Americans that have "done Europe" will learn with sadness that The House of Monroe & Co., has closed its doors. Several generations of Americans have made the bank their headquarters in Paris and thousands that knew no other French knew Sept. Rue Scribe which was the old address of Quatre Rue Ventadour, the address just closed.

The ill fortune of the old American house in Paris is part of an alarming crumbling process in French banking institutions that has suddenly taken France by surprise.

The French however, are resourceful, thrifty, entirely beyond our conception of thrift, and the French government will know how to stabilize its financial institutions.

CONSERVATISM NEW POLICY OF OIL INDUSTRY

Petroleum Producers Will Restrict Output To Meet Demand

(By United Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—With the entire world staggering under the weight of raw material surpluses, the petroleum industry has taken the lead in restricting output to meet demand, oil men from all parts of the nation were told Tuesday by E. B. Reeser, president of the American petroleum institute, at the organization's annual convention.

The outlook for the industry depends, he said, upon "the rapidity with which general conditions improve and the ability of producers, refiners and marketers to adapt operations to the changed conditions under which operations must be conducted."

"With knowledge of the law of supply and demand, no economic reason can be found, no plausible excuse manufactured, to justify continuous additions to petroleum stocks," he warned.

Reeser, who represented the Barnsdall corporation of Tulsa, Okla., reviewed legislation aimed at furthering petroleum conservation and said that "conservation has now become an accepted policy in the industry."

"Where are the dollies of yesterday?"

With the advent of modernistic decoration, a new theory has crept in, and the right kind of a table is supposed to be its own decoration, not requiring extraneous ornament. For the living room there are all kinds of beautiful blendings of wood two or three kinds, perhaps, being used on a single piece. The result is a table that is decorative, as well as useful.

Tile-topped tables are also enjoying a growing vogue. They used to be considered most appropriate for outdoor rooms, the porch, terrace or garden.

TRIBUTE PAID TO WAR HEROES

Prof. Ramette, Guest Of Legion, Tells Of War Experiences

the peasantry of Europe's war devasted areas through Belleau
Woods, the Argonne, the Marne, and up to the glorious moment
when thundering cannons were choked and crimson stained skies cleared and the world's greatest news—"Armistice signed"—flashed around the globe.

Sees German Air Raids

He experienced probably his first thrill when one morning shortly before landing at Liverpool, he learned a torpedo the night before had skimmed a few feet past his ship's hull.

He witnessed scenes of excitement in London as German air raid ers dropped bombs.

The power and prestige of the American uniform, as well as the Yankees' efficiency at the front
were outstanding, declared the
speaker, and he went on to describe
the thrill that came when the American doughboys, thrown into
such scenes of carnage as Belleau
Woods, proved their courage to
French and British leaders and
went on to jam back the threatening German invasion.

"Perhaps the saddest thing of all," said Prof. Ramette "came
when those brave young men who had fought for two, three, four
years in the thickest of the conflict, met death just at the eleventh
hour. And messages of sorrow,
not of joy and elation, were read
by their fathers and mothers as
the celebration of the wars end
went on."

Concluding, the Mt. Union instructor lauded activities of states-
men on both sides of the Atlantic
toward the establishment of international friendliness and specifically pointed out that if these nations work together in the future
as they did in the past, there need
be no great fear of "the next war."

Rev. C. F. Bailey Spaker
Interpretation of present day
conditions as revealed through God's word, the Bible, were given by Rev. C. F. Bailey, pastor of the
First Friends church, in the celebration last night by Allen Reynolds, post No. 892, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and its auxiliary.

Rev. Bailey used for his theme,
"What of This Hour?" The speaker expressed the opinion that the present time is the "twilight hour"
of the age and he is looking for the
return of Jesus Christ. He admonished his auditors to enlist in the army of Jesus Christ under the call
of "this 11th hour, before the night
cometh when no man can work."

L. A. Frost, Vernon Morningstar and J. A. Nicklasen composed the entertainment committee, which arranged the program. Frost presided.

Mayer J. M. Davidson, in a short talk said that he was "proud to acknowledge the service rendered
by the war veterans to their country." He pointed out that their
work was not completed when the
war ended and that their present

Local Squad Swamps Opponents In Benefit Game At Reilly Field

Their goal-line endangered only once during the entire contest, Salem High easily defeated Sebring High school's grid team in a benefit game for the Red Cross chapter by a 26-0 score at Reilly athletic stadium Armistice Day afternoon.

More than three full teams were thrown into the contest by Coach Floyd Stone, only four regulars, Ed Beck, Lawrence Weigand, Gordon Keyes and Pern Sidingier being used. Harold Houts, versatile reserve back, played fullback and with Beck shared honors in carrying the Red and Black to the easy victory.

Beck and Houts each registered two touchdowns, the former crossing Sebring's goal-line for 12 points in the second period while Houts registered a touchdown in both the third and fourth quarters. Dan Alexander, colored second-string fullback, and Houts contributed the extra points on line plunges.

Sebring Muffs Chance

The first period brought out no dramatic efforts by either team. Sebring muffed an excellent chance to score after a punt, attempted by Beck, was blocked on Salem's 17-yard-line. It was the first of Beck's punts to have been blocked all season. On the first play from scrimmage a Sebring back fumbled. Hugh Bailey grabbing the ball before it hit the turf and galloped 12 yards to his own 30.

Beck's punt on the next play went out of bounds on the 45 and Sebring registered its initial first down. A pass was intercepted by Henry Reese on the Salem 15-yard stripe and Sebring's last chance to cross the goal-line was lost.

Eells, Sebring left end, contributed his team's only first down in the second period, an 11-yd. run on an end-around play. From then on Salem held the upper hand, a 20-yd. pass by Beck to Sidingier who ran an additional 22 yards to Sebring's 28 placing the Stonemen in position to score. Reese made five yards and Beck added eight on a plunge through center. Alexander, who replaced Gene Yarwood at fullback, hit the Sebring line on two consecutive plays for gains of six and five yards and Houts added two more. Houts failed to gain on a center back and Beck carried the ball over. Houts smashed through for the point.

Beck Scores

Houts thrilled fans with a 25-yd. run after Sebring was forced to punt following the kick-off and Beck completed a pass to Reese for seven yards. Houts gained one yard in two attempts and Beck's off-tackle run of seven yards brought the pigskin to the 17. A pass, Beck to Houts gained nine yards and Beck eased his way off left guard on the next play for his second touchdown. Alexander bucked center for the point.

Starting the third period, Sebring fumbled on the kick-off. George Ballantine recovering for Salem on the visitors' 35. Reese gained two yards then four while Yarwood smashed through for eight. Beck made nine. Yarwood five more and Houts hit tackle for the score. The buck for the point failed.

Eells furnished a thrill when he grabbed the kick-off and loped his way through most of the Salem team for a 40-yd. return but successive attempts to buck the Salem line were futile and Sebring punted. Beck punted right back and Keyes hopped on the resulting fumble to give the ball to Salem on the 15. Line plunges by Reese, Beck and Yarwood brought the ball to the three-yard mark and Houts registered his second touchdown easily. Again the point failed.

Stone Uses Reserves

Stone immediately began inserting numerous substitutions and used

every player reporting in a uniform for the game. Coach Karson, former Northwestern grid star who is experiencing his first year as Sebring mentor, also started tossing in his reserves and used 24 players.

The showing of the Salem reserves furnished a surprise for fandom here. Beck was stopped without gains frequently by the Sebring line but he also sneaked away for consistent long runs and made several spectacular returns of punts. Ballantine, the Corso brothers, Jimmy and Billie, with Battin played well on the line.

Eells was Sebring's outstanding performer.

The game was a great warmup session for the Stonemen in preparation for the annual battle with Lisbon High, scheduled here Friday night. Stone plans to use almost the identical lineup as that which faced Sebring against the county seat representation.

All proceeds above expenses will be donated to the Salem chapter, American Red Cross, which started its annual roll call campaign here Tuesday. Less than 1,000 paid admissions were received.

STIRBLING WINS OVER ART DEKUH

Georgian In Unimpressive Victory Over Opponent In New York Ring

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—With all due respect to Arthur Dekuh, flatterer of Young Stirbling to flatten him today sent Stirbling's heavy-weight challenger's stock right down to rock bottom. He got the decision, but his victory was anything but spectacular affair.

His failure to stop Dekuh makes Jack Sharkey's offer to fight Stirbling for the New York Christmas fund for nothing, looms up like Al Smith's new building.

Stirbling will have to move in on Sharkey's defi or suffer further slumping in the popularity market. There is no bunk about Sharkey's offer. He is ready to sign the moment Stirbling says the word.

After yesterday's poor showing he will have to do something big to prove to the public that he, and not Sharkey is entitled to that shot at Schmeling's title.

Singer Favored

They've made Al Singer a 2 to 1 favorite over Tony Canzoneri in Friday night's bout for the world's lightweight title. Before they climb into the ring, Singer may go as high as 3 and 4 to 1. That's the way they back a young world's champion in these parts, though the short-ends often make the wise men on Broadway come to torrents of tears.

FANS THRILLED IN BOUTS HELD AT SALEM GYM

Amateurs Furnish Action In Eight Fights Here Tuesday Night

Slam-bang action ruled as amateur leather-pushers vied for fistie honors in a series of eight simon-pure battles at the Memorial building gymnasium here last night.

Practically every fight on the card was a thriller despite the fact that none ended in a knockout. Two of the battles went into a fourth round when judges were unable to decide in either boxer's favor at the end of the matches.

Results

Results of the bouts follow: Paul Hoffman (Salem) shaded George Julian (Salem). Young Dickey (Salem) won on a foul from Buck Ash (Salem). Phil Zellers (Columbiana) out-pointed Johnnie Varanitis (Salem). Amos (Lisbon) and Andy (Lisbon) drew.

Bob Monterief (Damascus) out-pointed Risty Krepps (Salem). Bud Smalley (Damascus) defeated Bud Zellers (Salem). Young Dorsey (Sebring) out-pointed Louie Husey (Columbiana). Chet Delaughter (Washingtonville) won from Jackie Grubbs (Damascus).

The Delaughter-Grubbs mix was one of the outstanding bouts of the evening, the former winning the decision by taking the fourth round by a wide margin.

Hoffman Wins Again

Hoffman and Julian staged a thrilling argument for three rounds. Hoffman earning the decision by outlasting his opponent. Ash lost his fight when Referee Evans ruled he attempted to foul Dickey.

Krepps finished a bad second to Monterief being outclassed all the way. A clever defense was all that enabled him to finish the fight.

The Dorsey-Smalley fracas was the best fight of the evening, Dorsey holding the edge through most of the milling and then took a fourth round to clinch the decision.

SALEM RUNNERS IN STATE MEET

Cross Country Team Will Compete In Annual Race This Week

Salem High school's cross country team will compete in the annual state cross country run which will be held at Ohio State stadium in Columbus this week.

The Red and Black harriers, coached by R. B. Clark, director of physical education in Salem grade schools, are rated as possible victors in the competition, having swamped two opponents in a triangular meet in Cleveland earlier this fall.

Harold Walker and Wilfred Brantingham are the leading performers for Clark's team. Walker placed third in the state meeting last year while the Salem team finished in fifth place.

A total of 103 athletes from 23 high schools competed in the 1929 meet. About 125 runners from 25 schools are expected in this week's competition.

Patsy Perroni Battles Champ In Canton Feature On Monday

CANTON, Nov. 12.—Seven cities in four states will be represented in the fight show here next Monday night, featuring Maxie Rosenbloom of New York, world's light-heavy champion, in a ten-rounder against Patsy Perroni of Canton at 177 pounds, two over the class limit.

The supporting bouts have been announced as follows: Freddie Edwards of Chester, W. Va., and Benny Burns of Akron for eight rounds at 150 pounds; Tony Leone of Dover and Carl Cavelli of Canton for eight at 125; Jimmy Perry of Alliance and Freddie Haverlak of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., for six frames at 130 and Bud Morrison of Canton with Zeke Jones of Akron, for six at the same poundage.

Well Balanced Card

The card appears unusually well balanced, with the principals ranging from feathers to light heavies.

It will be the first appearance to Rosenbloom in this section. He demanded a substantial guarantee to leave the lights of Broadway for a jaunt into the wilds of Ohio, having done practically all of his fighting in New York and vicinity, where he has a strong following among Jewish bugs.

The champion refused to defend his title against Perroni, insisting that the Canton Youngster come into the ring at least two pounds above the 175-pound limit for light-heavies. One other clause on which the champion was insistent was that no Canton man be chosen to referee the bout. That position probably will go to an Akron or Youngstown arbiter.

Cedarville Loses

URBANA, Nov. 12.—Urbana university's football team, playing intercollegiate football this season for the first time in many years, downed Cedarville college here yesterday, 12 to 0.

The two teams played a 6-to-6 tie earlier in the season.

ASHEVILLE, N. C.—Tourists visiting Asheville spend an average $12 a day during their visit here—room and board $8; incidentals $1; amusement $3 a survey showed.

Advent Of Radio Factor In Improving Enjoyment In Home Life

Salem Tool Company Displays M'Millan Set; Shows Great Progress

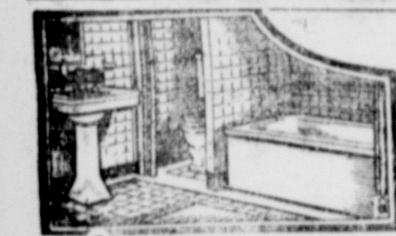

The radio plays an important part in the home life of the average family today. It has been a big factor in making the home more enjoyable. ## CRANK CASE OIL FILLS NEEDS IN CAR OPERATION

Lubrication Of Running Parts Necessary For Good Automobiles

Motor oil as used in your car has two important functions. The first of these of course is the lubrication of the running parts of the engine, but the second is of almost equal importance, for oil is intended to seal the space between the piston and the cylinder walls, so that the full force of the firing of the gasoline can be exerted to move the piston. When oil does this perfectly, the engine has full power, but if the oil is too light, or diluted by gasoline to lower than its proper consistency the engine loses much of its power.

This is a condition that the laboratories are all the time at work to remedy, and it has resulted in the Sinclair principles of lubrication being formulated. Sinclair Opaline motor oil has a great following among motorists. As a result of researches by the company it has evolved a lubrication chart that should be studied by every driver. This chart is not merely a suggestion of a certain grade of oil for each car, but a scientifically worked out recommendation of oil according to the time of service of the car and its mileage. It is realized that a motor that has been worn by 10,000 miles of service requires a stronger seal than one right from the factory, and so the chart is worked out on a mileage basis, showing the exact grade of Opaline oil required during the life of the car.

The Culler Sinclair service, 12 West State, is glad to show the chart to drivers and help them to apply its principles. This station handles Sinclair products exclusively, washes and greases cars and has accessories for sale. William P. Culler, proprietor, believes that in Opaline and mobile he has on sale the finest lubrication that can be purchased.

Old Chairs Appear New After Repairs

Once in awhile, in some out of the way corner, one comes across an old chair that in its day was the acme of fashion and synonym for elegance, but that in its last estate has been allowed to fall to pieces. Its lines may be good, its wood superior; but of course its upholstery is knocked to bits. One wonders a little about its history, why such a fine piece of furniture was not repaired before it was ruined, and passes on with a thought of how frequently the ornament of today is on the dump of tomorrow.

But in chairs especially many of the old pieces have an artistry of their own, a charm that is unusual. These pieces would grace any home nowadays if the ravages of time were repaired. Up in the attic you may have a piece or two, too good to throw away, yet too shabby to show. The thing to do is to send such furniture to establishments like that of Bodendorfer's Furniture store at 121 East State street, where all their original beauty may be restored. Mr. Bodendorfer refinishes and reupholsters furniture. In the latter work especially he delights to make used stuff take its proper rank, and he will do a good job for you at any time. He also makes overstuffed furniture to order, while the store carries a good line of furniture carefully selected, from which you may select the new pieces you want.

Sets New Record from Baltimore to Capital

Pilot C. C. Tahaferro set a new flying record from Baltimore to Washington when he flew the 35 miles in 9 minutes. He used the Eastern Air Express shuttle plane, which, although it was loaded with mail, achieved a speed of 233.1 miles per hour.

Salem Contractor Traces Improvements In Houses

One may have, and frequently does have, a veneration for an old home. Every little corner has a memory that is worth treasuring, and the rooms and even the exterior of the house have become so familiar that the idea of change is apt to bring a little feeling of resentment.

One should not blind himself to the fact that there has been a great improvement in dwelling houses in the last few years, as there has been in most all fields of human activity, and that the old homes, no matter how stately and dear they may have become, are not so convenient as the newer ones.

That convenience often is a matter of steps for the women of the household, a matter of relieving them of the drudgery that must be associated with housework. Veneration for inanimate things should not be permitted to add to the burdens of the living. Houses are built for their comfort, not to be cherished to the discomfort of their inmates.

Remodeling Helps

Plumbing Declared By Dealer Here As Asset To Progress

Someone has said rather wittily that the difference between a civilized race and a barbarian people is only a matter of plumbing. Perhaps, however, there is more to the observation than mere wit. Plumbing has made possible the cities of the present. Those of the Orient that try to get "along" without modern plumbing, are subject to terrible epidemics, unhealthy and far from comfortable. Our own big cities, on the contrary, tend toward greater cleanliness every year, and plumbing leads the procession in advancing their livability.

If plumbing did nothing more than provide for water and sewage, its contribution to the race would be incalculable. Plumbing has to do with health and hygiene, and the

TRAINING HELPS PREPARATION OF SALEM STUDENTS

Highly specialized as business is today its rewards still go to those who know the general principles of the game. Time may have been when a young man or woman could, in an office pick up enough of the details of the business in two or three years to be worth more money, and in exceptional cases show such aptitude that promotion came swiftly. Now, however, it is almost altogether a matter of training.

Business needs well trained workers, is always on the lookout for them, and is willing to pay well for the man or woman who can do any particular job a little better than any one else. Openings in offices are rarely given to the untrained; they go to those who are able to discharge at least a part of the duties from their previous experience. Preference is thus usually given to those who have taken a business course.

Business schools as a rule have little difficulty finding desirable positions for those whom they can recommend. In fact, most of them have a waiting list of desirable jobs ready for the people who can make a success of them. To be really successful, a business school must meet the expectations of those employers who call upon them by making their instruction as thorough and as practical as it can be made. Experience and close personal attention to the pupils will do this. The Salem Business College, with a record of 36 years behind it, has the experience and devotes the personal attention to pupils required to give them the basis of success, and on this fact has built up a substantial standing as a real school.

Under the management of Franklin F. Wells, with a trained faculty, this school has been starting young men and women toward success for a long time, and today enjoys the fine reputation of a commercial institute that does all it promises.

degree of satisfaction to the people living in the old home. A few changes here and there, addition of modern conveniences in lighting and plumbing, and perhaps the alteration of a part of the exterior would repay many times their cost in the added comfort.

M. L. Hans, 552 East Sixth street, has a proper respect for old buildings, one that enables him to approach their remodeling with due regard to the sentiments attached to them. Hans, who has given this subject a great amount of attention, realizes that the comfort that might be secured and the value that is certain to be added to the property more than justify a very considerable alteration, and it is a pleasure to him to talk this subject over with those who reside in old homes that they would like to have up to date in convenience, economy and appearance.

Hans is unusually well equipped for general contracting work, having the best machinery obtainable for reducing costs in woodworking, cement and mortar handling. He is also interested in making cellars waterproof by the painting with certain compounds that have proved most effective.

state regards it of such importance that it regulates it. Yet with all the power of the state, while it can license men to do plumbing, it cannot make a good plumber out of one that isn't, especially if he handles quality products—such as those of the National Sanitary Company one of Salem's largest industrial plants. Or when planning on the construction of a new home, it always pays to specify good plumbing fixtures such as National enameled iron sanitary ware, a product made by Salem folks and sold all over the United States.

American Air Aide Under Arrest in Brazil

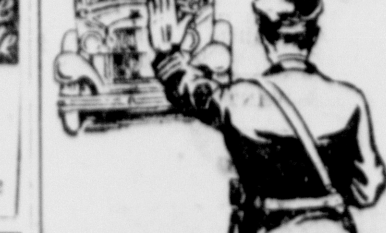

Captain Orton Hoover, veteran American aviator, was arrested at Sao Paulo, Brazil, and is being held a close prisoner by the local provisional military government. There have been no definite charges lodged against Hoover, who has been aviation instructor to the Sao Paulo State Militia for the past seven years. It is said he dropped bombs on revolutionary troops.

WARM AIR PLANT AIDS HEALTH OF FAMILY AT HOME

Proper Humidity Proven Essential Factor, Aid To Comfort

It is claimed by authorities that modern warm air heating in addition to the greatest comfort, is by all means the most healthful. There are two very good reasons for this claim. In the proper installation of warm air plants, all the air in the house is in gentle circulation. This circulation of air is in itself a great purification. One may stand in the lee of a prevailing breeze on a hot summer day and suffer greatly from the heat, but if he steps into the breeze the discomfort is done. The air seems keener and more life giving, and the heat is far less annoying. So in the circulation of air in the house in the winter time. That very circulation purifies and reconditions the air.

Next, the air can automatically be kept in a proper condition of humidity. This can easily be arranged for in a warm air heating plant. Third, with automatic heat regulation the house can easily be kept at the exact temperature desired. It is neither too hot nor too cold, the air is balmy and pure, and comfort is assured.

Most of the difficulty experienced with warm air heating in times past has been due to inexperienced installation. Proper heating of a house is an engineering job, and no two of these installations is alike. Hence experience must supplement the engineering. The selection of the furnace required is important, but not all of the job. The Munsell & Vincent firm of this city backs its engineering knowledge with seven years of heating experience. It is prepared to install heating plants in both old and new houses that will do the work to the satisfaction of the users. In this heating it uses the celebrated Success Heaters, which are claimed to avoid the disadvantages of most furnaces and to be most economical and efficient.

NEW CHEVROLET IS ANNOUNCED

1931 Model To Be Considerably Larger Than Our Rent Car—Changed In Appearance

CLEVELAND, Nov. 12—Definite assurance that Chevrolet will introduce a new car for 1931 on Saturday was revealed here during the staging by Chevrolet factory officials of the first of 50 dealer meetings to be held in the next five weeks throughout the country.

Included in a carload of equipment brought in for the meeting was a new car substantially bigger than the current model, and extensively changed in appearance.

Although the meeting was closed to the public, it was learned that H. J. Klingler, vice president and general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Co., who attended the meeting here, told the 500 dealers and associated bankers in attendance at the city auditorium that the car would be publicly announced the coming Saturday, and that, despite its increased size and improved appearance, it would be priced considerably below current levels.

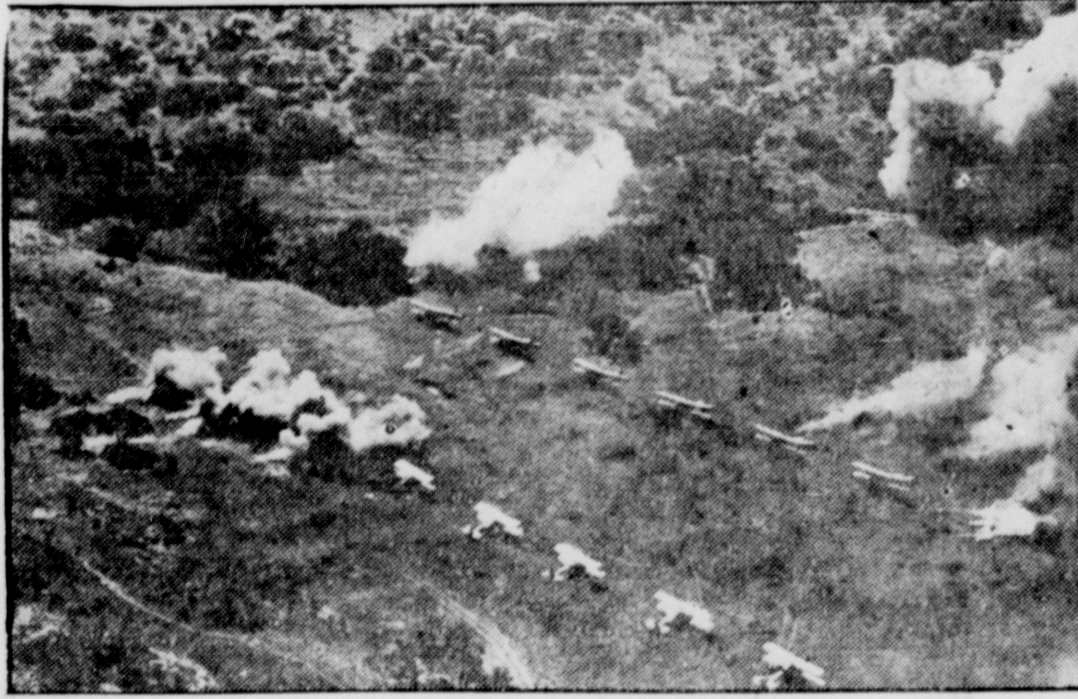

The car is longer than the present Chevrolet, and changes and refinement are so extensive that it has a decided "big car" appearance, one dealer reported.

Tradition Broken

The sweep of Democratic victories throughout the country has unseated a family that has been represented in Congress for the past twenty-five years. Above is shown Representative Katherine Langley, whose family has held the Fourth District, Kentucky, in the Republican column for nearly a quarter of a century.

ANCIENT WARRIORS DIE IGNOBLE DEATHS

After serving for many years in Uncle Sam's aerial army, these doomed planes of another age are made the targets of their successors' bullets and bombs. One of the obsolete planes used in the bombing maneuvers has already burst into flames, and three others lie within the center of impact from the bombardment.

"UP THE RIVER" At The Grand

With some fifty featured players and nearly a thousand extras adding their comedy talents to a basically hilarious story, "Up The River," Fox Movietone Comedy, playing for the last time tonight at the Grand theatre, is rapidly proving itself to be a laugh sensation of the year.

Based on the illegal but uproarious activities of a team of burglars and jail-breakers whose chief purpose in life is to further a romance between two of their friends, "Up The River" is a gorgeous mélange of rib-tickling dialog and incidentally establishing a number of stage players as well as many screen favorites as fun makers par excellence.

Spencer Tracy and Claire Luce, both Broadway celebrities, make their film debuts in this laugh-fest, with Warren Hymer and Humphrey Bogart, William Collier, Sr., and Joan ("Cherie") Lawes in the other featured roles.

"DOUGHBOYS" At The State

War in all its funny angles—and the picture proves that there are thousands of them—is the theme of Buster Keaton's newest talking comedy, now playing at the State theatre. "Dough Boys" hasn't a dull moment in it with laughs and thrills, thrills and laughs, and a love story in between. Added laughs are guaranteed by the appearance of Cliff Edwards and his inevitable ukulele who sings the production's song hit, "Sing".

The romantic interest is furnished by Sally Eilers, last seen as the ingenue of "Let Us Be Gay." The cast also includes Edward Brophy, Victor Potel, Arnold Korff, Frank Mayo, Pitzy Katz and William Steele.

OLD TOWN, Me.—Miss Jane Bussel of this town knelt to pray in her home. A sewing needle penetrated her knee.

Castoria...for CHILDREN'S ailments

ARE you prepared to render first aid and quick comfort the moment your youngster has an upset of any sort? Could you do the right thing—immediately—though the emergency came without warning—perhaps tonight? Castoria is a mother's standby at such times. There is nothing like it in emergencies, and nothing better for everyday use. For a sudden attack of colic, or for the gentle relief of constipation; to allay a feverish spell, or to soothe a fretful baby that can't sleep. This pure vegetable preparation is always ready to ease an ailing youngster. It is just as harmless as the recipe on the wrapper reads. If you see Chas. H. Fletcher's signature, it is genuine.

Castoria. It is harmless to the smallest infant; doctors will tell you so.

You can tell from the formula on the wrapper how mild it is, and how good for little systems. But continue with Castoria until a child is grown.
